2017 SITE GUIDELINES AND AGREEMENT

Vendors assume all liability and responsibility for each booth area reserved during their use of it, all items sold, and responsibility and liability for the activities of any vendor employees present on site.

No vendor will be allowed on property if vendor application is incomplete. Approved vendors will receive a letter authorizing their presence on the property and their use of the booth area. All vendors must provide proof of insurance sufficient to cover liability up to $200,000 minimum liability to be approved for use of the booth.

Vendor's space is limited to a 10 feet X 10 feet area unless otherwise agreed by event coordinator.

The reserved area is for the use of the approved vendor. Vendors are not authorized to use the space to solicit for other businesses or organizations who have not registered. Persons who are not part of the same vendor company will be required to pay separate reservation fees and sign a contract, and must be present when their items are marketed at such space. Any items not mentioned on the contract agreement must be pre-approved by the event coordinator.

Ticonderoga Farms LLC is not responsible for any permitting/licensing/insuring/State or Federal income tax/business operations of any vendor's products or offerings sold from the vendor's booth.

All products sold shall be of merchantable quality. Ready to eat food and drink designed for consumption on site must be produced in a certified facility and processed, labeled, stored and transported in compliance with all applicable local, state, and federal laws.

Any and all grievances, concerns, organizing of the Ticonderoga Farms operations must be filtered through the site coordinator. Grievance procedures are on file with the Site Coordinator. If you have a grievance or complaint about another vendor, please fill out a grievance report.

There will be no refunds or credits on any space, for reservation fees or operating fees.

Vendors are responsible for maintaining and cleaning up their own booth space. Vendors will be charged $25.00 for each day the vendor's space is left with debris. This fee must be paid before the vendor will be allowed to participate in any future events. Ticonderoga Farms is not responsible for any items left on site by vendors, lost, stolen, or damaged overnight or after the end of the business day.

No amplified music is permitted on property. Smoking is not permitted on the site. This guideline will be strictly enforced. Alcohol or illicit drug consumption, swearing, offensive comments, will not be allowed nor tolerated on site, you will be removed from the site.

Please sign in and out with site coordinator on duty prior to your entry or departure.

Vendors must man their booth at all times during the operating hours planned. Vendors agree to work in a harmonious manner with other vendors, customers, market coordinator and staff.

Objects found in Ticonderoga Farms' buildings or structures are not to be removed at any time. The gardens and grounds are part of the business of Ticonderoga Farms. Taking of flowers, foliage, or greenery from the grounds is strictly prohibited. Clients may not move or alter any item on the property. No stakes, poles or root damaging elements may be placed within the grounds area without prior approval by our management.

All vendors are held responsible for proper disposal of food, grease, oils, ice, and trash in compliance with all laws. Please see site coordinator for any questions on disposal. No glass or alcoholic beverages allowed on site.
