NOTES

A vibrant tropical sunset scene. The sky transitions from a deep blue at the top to a warm orange and red at the horizon. Large, soft, white and yellow clouds are scattered across the middle. In the foreground, a small island with several green palm trees sits on the water. To the right, a small sailboat with a white sail is visible. The entire image has a slightly textured, vintage feel with some faint vertical lines and small golden specks.
