

A woman with long, dark, wavy hair is walking away from the camera on a wooden suspension bridge. She is wearing a black sleeveless top with a white geometric pattern and a black skirt. The bridge has wooden railings and is surrounded by lush green foliage. The lighting is soft, suggesting late afternoon or early morning.

A Devotional Poem

Day Two: WALK IN FREEDOM

Starting today, walk in freedom. Surrender your life to Christ. Give your all to Him. Be free to follow after Him. Have a made-up mind that, no matter what, your life belongs to Christ. Live a life that's pleasing to Him, and walk in freedom today.

Rejoice in the freedom God has given you. Celebrate and be who you are, a daughter of the King. Sing songs and shout praises to God. Tell of the wonderful things He has done. Make sweet noise unto the Lord. Everything that's within you, lift up God for you've been liberated.

Because you have your freedom, you can dance. Go ahead, my sister. Dance. Praise God with a dance the way Miriam and David danced. With all your might, dance before the Lord. Leap. Twirl. Jump. Dance for joy. There are no restrictions.

Walk with your head held high. Walk without guilt or shame. Walk with your confidence in God. You are free indeed. You are free to love. You are free to love yourself and others. So, love like Christ. The King loves you. Freely love God back. Love Him with your entire heart, all of your mind, all of your soul, and all of your might. Love freely. You are free to forgive as you've been forgiven. Now, forgive yourself and someone else. Embrace your forgiveness that Jesus gives.

You're released from the shackles. What others think of you or say about you does not bind you. Your past no longer imprisons you because Christ has set you free. Things that just don't matter no longer hold you captive. What matters is that you were lost, but now you are found. You were once blind, but now you see. You were headed for destruction, but Jesus came and turned your entire life around. Because of Jesus Christ, the prison bars have been opened, and you're free.

My sister, you're liberated, unrestrained, and absolutely free. Jesus has freed you from captivity. So today, refuse to have any yoke on you. Refuse to be held captive, shackled, and bound. Christ has freed you. Today and forevermore, walk in your freedom.
