what we're teaching

This past weekend was great! Will Lengacher, a senior in our youth group, shared a lesson from the book of Micah 6. He challenged students to be broken before God and confess their sin rather than making excuses or trying to cover it up with works.

WHAT THE EXPERTS ARE SAYING...

Discuss Tragedy with Your Kids

The tragedy in Las Vegas has left many of us speechless. However, we need to use moments like this to discuss hard subjects with our youth. In Deuteronomy 6, God tells us, "These commandments that I give you today are to be upon your hearts. Impress them on your children. Talk about them when you sit at home, and when you walk along the road, when you lie down, and when you get up." God will use tragedy to teach us about himself. You don't need to have all the answers, just make sure to start the conversation.

"DEVAUX"TIONAL

This weekend we will be starting a new series titled "Anchor". This will be my first opportunity to teach in front of the group. I am excited to share the message that God has placed on my heart. I appreciate your prayers as we go through this week and I prepare to share some of my personal testimony and all that God has done in my life. As we work through this series, we will use Hebrews 6:19 as our verse of focus. "We have this hope as an anchor for the soul."
