

Christopher C. Harding
Massachusetts Commissioner of Revenue

Christopher C. Harding serves as the Commissioner of the Department of Revenue for the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. Commissioner Harding is responsible for administering the tax, child support, and municipal finance laws of the Bay State.

Formerly Executive Vice President of Sales, Marketing and Business Development for Mobiuity, Inc., a Massachusetts based professional services firm focused on providing Enterprise Digital Consulting services to Fortune 1000 organizations, Mr. Harding can be characterized as a serial entrepreneur having either founded or been a key leader in a series of early and growth stage technology based firms.

In addition to formerly serving as President and CEO of Concordant, Inc. (North Chelmsford, MA – acquired by Arcadia in 2011) Mr. Harding has been a part of six other organizations in his 30 years in industry. The majority of his career has been spent in Massachusetts, including the past 19 years.

Mr. Harding's responsibilities have consistently centered on driving his organization's growth strategy highlighted through focused planning and execution. He is a proven leader with a long history of success having been a part of two IPO's, raising venture capital on multiple occasions as well as other initiatives in direct support of his firm's business objectives.

Mr. Harding is a graduate of Boston College and resides in Wellesley, MA with his wife of 24 years and their two children.

Mr. Harding serves on the Board of Laboure College in Milton, MA and formerly served on the Board of The Carney Hospital, Dorchester, MA for eight years.

Prior to becoming Commissioner, Mr. Harding served as DOR's Chief of Staff.