

Kerry H. Sullivan
President, Bank of America Charitable Foundation

Kerry Herlihy Sullivan is President of the Bank of America Charitable Foundation, whose mission is to help advance economic mobility for individuals and families, and to support economic progress in communities across the company's global footprint. In this role, Sullivan leads a team responsible for philanthropic strategy in support of the company's commitment to responsible growth through a focus on environmental, social and governance factors. The Foundation is delivering on a ten-year $2 billion philanthropic giving goal, with a particular focus of serving low-income communities and vulnerable populations.

Sullivan manages strategic relationships with non-profit partners and NGO's addressing issues related to economic mobility including workforce development and education, community development with an emphasis on affordable housing, and basic needs and disaster relief. She leads the company's signature philanthropic programs, Neighborhood Builders® and Student Leaders®, which recognize the community leadership and service of nonprofit organizations and students in 48 markets across the U.S., with more than $220 million invested since 2004. In addition, Sullivan is responsible for the company's global volunteer program, including the skills-based volunteer corps, Better Money Habits Champions, which supports the company's purpose to improve financial lives.

With nearly 30 years of experience, Sullivan is recognized as an expert in the field of Charitable giving. Prior to joining the Bank of America Charitable Foundation, Sullivan was instrumental in developing Philanthropic Management Foundation Advisory Services — a business unit responsible for providing philanthropic counsel and grants management to high-net worth clients.

She currently serves on the National Board of Directors of Year Up; Mentor, the National Mentoring Partnership; Points of Light; BPE, the Boston Plan for Excellence; the GreenLight Fund; and serves as Chair of the Summer Fund — a donor collaborative that raises annual support for summer programs to benefit Boston's inner city youth.

Sullivan has a BA in English from the College of the Holy Cross-Worcester, Massachusetts, and earned her MBA from Boston College, Carroll School of Management. She resides in Sudbury, MA with her husband and has two daughters.

Follow Kerry on twitter: @KerryHSullivan

Learn more about Bank of America's ESG work, follow: @BofA_News