

Larry Kliemann
Franklin Realty

Larry Kliemann grew up in Ann Arbor – Ypsilanti area and graduated from Adrian College with a BA in Political Science & History. He finished his MA degree in History at Eastern Michigan University and served in the Marines. After honorable discharge, he worked in Lansing as a sales representative selling photographic equipment and supplies to universities and colleges throughout the state.

In the early 70's, he joined with Kliemann Real Estate as an agent. In 1989, he became an associate broker. He is a lifer in RPAC. Over the years, he has worked additionally within the firms of Spear & Associates, Buck Realty, Ehman & Greenstreet, and is now an associate broker with Franklin Realty.

“I have been in real estate for some time (I’m BC – Before Computers,) at a time when an agent could regularly expect to get the closing packages days before the closing, and review it with the clients and customers prior to closing. (Not all change is progressive.)”

“I’ve seen many amazing professional, legal, financial, and technical advances that have enhanced this industry and have benefited from the many educational opportunities offered.”

PROFESSIONAL TRAINING

Real Estate Law - University of Michigan

Real Estate Finance - Eastern Michigan

G.R.I. Courses - Mich. Association of Realtors Real Estate

Real Estate Exchange Courses

Real Estate Investment Courses

Real Estate Counseling Courses

Courses in marketing Income Properties

Courses in marketing Business Opportunities

Courses and seminars in marketing Residential Properties

Courses in Foreclosures and Short Sales

“I believe I can bring to the board an open mind. (Being in real estate a long time teaches one humility,) and perhaps contribute some insights that may be of value as our board preparers for an exciting future.”