

Are you a good listener?

Do you care about the wellbeing of people with disabilities?

The Ohio State University Nisonger Center is looking to grow its NCI interviewer team in certain *counties! They are looking for self-advocates, family members of people with developmental disabilities and other professionals in the field of developmental disabilities to become paid interviewers. Interviewers will conduct face-to-face conversations with Ohioans with disabilities for the National Core indicators (NCI) Adult Consumer Statewide Surveys Project (www.nisonger.osu.edu/NCI).
