Women's Fellowship: Christmas at Castle Hill

Saturday, December 2 at 1:00 p.m.

We will meet at the church and journey to Ipswich to tour this 1920's mansion event, "The Season of Carols." Each room in the mansion will be decorated for a beloved Christmas carol. This is an opportunity to get some great decorating ideas, shop in the Castle Hill gift shop and enjoy live music, cider, and the Harbor Sweets pop up café. If the weather is inviting, we can walk the grounds of Castle Hill as well. The cost is $20/person (scholarships available), $10 for Trustees of Reservations members, and anyone named Carol is free! Organizers say we should plan at least 90 minutes in the mansion. Contact Beth Loughhead at bloughhead@fbcbeverly.org if you plan to attend.

Welcome to the world and the First Baptist Church family!

This Advent Season

On December 3, we welcome the season of Advent. Throughout the season, we will be focusing on the amazing story of Christmas, a story born thousands of years ago that is so joyful and beautiful it continues to capture our imaginations and inspire our faith. As we live in turbulent times, there is great comfort and joy to be found in the story. Each Sunday we will pay special attention to a particular piece or character of the story and allow it to speak to us because, now more than ever, we need the stable and the star, the promise that God chose to dwell with us here on earth, and that God's light shines and the darkness cannot overcome it.

A special feature of this year's Advent season will be the decoration of a Christmas tree at the back of the sanctuary. Each Sunday, you will be invited to create an ornament that matches the theme for that Sunday. For example, the first Sunday of Advent the theme will be based on the stable itself, and there will be materials at church for you to create a stable and then place it on the tree at the back of the sanctuary. Or, you can choose to donate a stable ornament. In addition, there will be strips of paper available on which you can write a thought, a poem, or haiku about the day's theme. After they have been displayed, they will be made into a paper chain to decorate the tree.

So often when we hear the Christmas story, we focus on the innkeeper telling Mary and Joseph that there was no room in the inn. But there was room for the family...in the stable. And there God came to live with us. Stay tuned for more...many thanks to Avis Thomas for the beautiful Stable and Star!

Reception and Private Screening of Bending the Arc

December 6, 2017 | 6:00 p.m. reception, 7:00 pm. Film Screening

The FBC community is invited to join Build Health International and Karen and Jim Ansara at the Cabot Theater for a reception and viewing of this new documentary. Bending the Arc captures the story of Partners in Health, the Boston-based non-profit founded in 1987 "to bring the benefits of modern medical science to those most in need and to serve as an antidote to despair." Bending the Arc tells PIH's story from inception to the present day, using their work as a lens for a broader examination of the evolution of the field of global health. The evening will include a discussion of the how we can all make a difference in the lives of the world's poor. RSVP: abarker@buildhealthinternational.org

Book Group Tackles Lighter Reading

Friday, Dec. 1 at 1:00 p.m.

Join the Book Group for their December 1st meeting to discuss a hilarious book by Anne Tyler called Vinegar Girl. Since the group has recently read some longer nonfiction works that were challenging but rewarding, the members decided to tackle a shorter, more light-hearted book. The book is a contemporary update of Shakespeare's comedy, The Taming of the Shrew. Kate, the "vinegar girl" of the title, is a tart-tongued independent young woman whose father is trying to force her into an arranged marriage with his esteemed research assistant who's being threatened with deportation. The group will be meeting in the church lounge for discussion and laughter.

Three Months in Nicaragua: A Journey of the Heart with Tricia Harrop

Sunday, December 3 at 9:30 a.m.

Join Tricia Harrop for this All Church Forum in the chapel as she shares the story of her three-month mission trip to Nicaragua and the work of AMOS (a public health ministry). Tricia worked in an urban clinic and mentored a team of talented young Nicaraguans in grant writing and reporting and worked with the Development Team. Most of all, Tricia was inspired by the grace, heart and passion of the AMOS staff to bring healing and hope to the most vulnerable—newborns, children, and the elderly. Thank you to the FBC family for your support of Tricia and AMOS!

Holiday Fair Recap From Pam Constantine

Our Holiday Fair was a success! We did even better financially than last year, which was a really good year. We competed with a number of other fairs this time around, making our feat all the more impressive.

So many people contributed time and resources to this fair, and a hearty thank you goes to everyone, even to those who were only able to come and shop or encourage their friends to drop by. Liz Crean recruited and wrangled all the crafters in the gym, starting in August and working hard right through the end of the day. Loyce Thomson's silent auction was just stunning, with its elaborate baskets and wonderful Nutcracker and Bruins tickets, gift certificates, and handmade items. The debut of the Armstrong Johnstone Plant and Gratitude Tables was a hit and introduced the community to a new Thanksgiving tradition. Julie Flowers and the Senior High and Middle School fellowships provided our delicious breakfast and luncheons AND ran a great children's game room with crafts. We saw lots of happy children leaving the fair with the prizes they won. Elly Flowers and Cindy Shupp managed the gourmet Bake Table/Country Store as well as creating the apple pies earlier in the month. Marty Lincoln and her talented crew filled the narthex with lovely crafts that really showed off their remarkable talents—a yearlong task! Bob and Gloria Stoneham presided over the Raffle Table and made that experience a lot of fun for the folks who wanted those looonngg arm lengths of tickets. Santa was very popular and said he plans to tuck a little something extra into the stockings of Glenn Peterson, Dick Stone and Luke Oliviera for helping him make the day for so many families. And down in the light-festooned Grandpa's Attic, John Thomson and his crew spun hay into gold, selling off attic treasures and breaking the record for most money ever made selling the contributions from the church family. Beth Loughhead, as ministerial liaison to the fair, spent time answering odd emails, making interesting phone calls and performing tasks they never talk about in divinity school to support all of us coordinators—a big undertaking! And Kent Harrop fulfilled his assigned task of shmoozing the fair goers admirably, as well as lugging carton after carton upstairs to Buck Shupp's truck to send the leftover items from Grandpa's Attic to Savers, where it was turned into $127.22 to be donated to Family Promise.

On a personal note: I am grateful for all the hard work that so many people put into making our fair such a rousing success. Every year when I walk around, I am astounded by the care that people have taken in donating their time and resources to making the fair, not just a financial success, but a lovely presentation of who we are as a church family. We heard so many compliments about our fair—its overall feel, friendliness, and thoughtfulness about what would make for a good visiting experience. So thank you to everyone who did even one thing and those who did so many things—we are much more than the sum of our parts! My heart is so full, I would need 20 of the Armstrong Johnstone Gratitude Trees to express everything in it!

Merry Christmas
