

Vincent Levi
President & CEO
Greater Palm Springs Film Alliance
& Film Office

Levi is a Sony Computer Entertainment (SCE) media publisher, who has written, produced, directed, presented over 120 short-story animated videos for broadcast to a global audience in excess of 40 million. He is founder of a Palm Springs-based game studio and video production company that conceives, develops and publishes 3D digital in-game merchandise for the Sony PlayStation gaming console.

Levi specializes in bridging individual participation, business engagement and brand awareness – credited for developing, leading and growing the Greater Palm Springs Film Alliance & Film Office's new business strategy and brand identity. The Greater Palm Springs Film Alliance & Film Office has grown to become the foremost authority on film and photo production in the Coachella Valley and has received countless accolades from prominent members of the film and television industry.

Levi has received the SBEMP Entrepreneur Award for 2015, the Inland Empire Spirit of Entrepreneur Award for Emerging Platforms (semi-finalist), awarded the United States Certificate of Special Congressional Recognition for Business Achievements, and the California Legislature Assembly Certificate of Recognition. He currently sits on the board of the Desert Screenwriters Guild and adviser to multiple digital arts and technology scholastic programs with the local public school districts. A Dramatic Arts graduate, Levi was quick to produce two successful off-Broadway shows, which he credits as the most important learning experiences of his entertainment career.
