

Coastal Senior College's Challenge of Change Discussion Group invite all to come hear protest novelist, nonviolence and social justice advocate

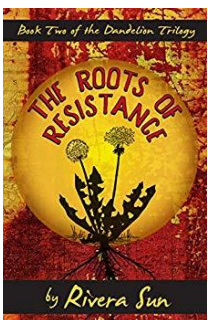

Rivera Sun share stories about how people like us faced overwhelming injustice, organized, mobilized . . . and won!

Drawing on the powerful history of nonviolent struggle, learn about effective strategies for change and come away with great ideas for tackling the issues we face.

Friday, August 10, at 2 pm

Midcoast Outreach and Peace Center,
Friends Meetinghouse, 77 Belvedere Rd.,
Damariscotta

Rivera grew up in Maine and is the author of "The Dandelion Insurrection," its new sequel, "The Roots of Resistance," and other novels. She is the cohost of Occupy Radio, and the cofounder of the Love-In-Action Network. Her essays and writings are syndicated by Peace Voice.

Free and open to all. FMI call Jon at 207.549.7787