

Athletic Communion Breakfast

For all CCHS student-athletes, coaches & teams

Sunday, September 17

Mass 10 a.m. Grandi Auditorium

Breakfast to follow featuring guest speaker

Rev. Rob Hagan, OSA

Associate Athletic Director, Villanova University

Fr. Rob is the chaplain of the men's basketball team and football team at Villanova, and played an integral role in the Wildcats' 2016 NCAA National Championship. Basketball coach Jay Wright has said "The humility of this team, the spirit of this team, really comes from him. He gets what athletes are about, what students are about, about what we're trying to do. He has an incredible ability to mix his faith and religion into what we do."

His inspirational message is one of faith woven into the everyday, especially athletics. You don't want to miss this!

Tickets (non-students) $20/person

Student-Athletes FREE

Tickets include Mass and breakfast (eggs, sausage/bacon, pancakes, bagels, fruit and beverages).
