

Pro Bono Corner – Landon Tymochko

Woohoo! We are rounding the bend and heading for the home stretch of 2017! Isn't it great that fall is back! The temperature is starting to dip. Pumpkin flavored lattes are back. Stores are already selling Christmas trees!

2017 Financial Planning Day: Saturday, October 21st 9am – 3pm, West Sacramento City Hall

Well, I probably don't have to tell you that our chapter's big pro bono activity is quickly approaching. The 7th annual Greater Sacramento Financial Planning Day is happening on Saturday, October 21st from 9am – 3pm. If you haven't participated in past events, I'd encourage you to volunteer, or at least come check it out. And please share the event with others in your community that could benefit from the event.

Many of you enjoy this event as an opportunity to give back and share your expertise as a financial planner and subject matter expert. It is especially important that we offer this type of pro bono financial planning to underserved communities that would otherwise not have access to a qualified CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ professional.

We look forward to your participation again this year. Here are the links for you to share on your social media.

Looking for Pro Bono committee members – Rosemont Financial Literacy Project

As we look toward 2018, we want to support our current pro bono efforts, as well as continue to expand into new initiatives. To do so, we need help. One specific request is for a pro bono committee member that is interested in coordinating the Rosemont Financial Literacy Project. This is a monthly educational workshop provided in partnership with the Rosemont Community Foundation. If this is something that interests you, please reach out to me for details.

Chapter Leader's Conference

As the Pro Bono director of our chapter, I am looking forward to attending this year's Chapter Leader's Conference. This will give me the opportunity to connect and network with financial planners from around the country that are doing great things in the area of Pro Bono. Look for my report in the next newsletter on what I have learned about how we can take our pro bono initiatives to the next level.

With that, I will wish you a pleasant fall and holiday season!
