

Hoping for Home

Communities of Faith Respond to the Need for Trafficking Survivor Housing

Thursday, November 15th, 2018

7pm–8:30pm

The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints

5701 8th Ave Ne Seattle, WA 98105

Limited parking available in the back of the building. Street parking also available.

Do you have a spare room, rental property, or empty living space and feel called to act? Are you part of a faith community and want to mobilize people at your worship space to respond to the need for housing for trafficking survivors? Join us to learn more about what you can do to provide temporary or long-term housing opportunities for survivors of trafficking. Explore ways to give the “hope of home” those who have experienced human trafficking.

Please register at bit.ly/HopingForHome

Sponsored by: The Multifaith Coalition to Address Human Trafficking

Speakers: Audrey Baedke, Community Advocate Supervisor, Real Escape from the Sex Trade \(REST\), and Hao Nguyen, Anti-Human Trafficking Program Coordinator, API Chaya

If you are able, please bring a $5–50 gift card for trafficking survivors as your “cost of admission.” Some examples include fast food restaurants (McDonald’s), clothing stores (Target), or pharmacies/convenience stores (Bartell’s).

