

BRIEF BIOS ON OUR NEWEST FACULTY & STAFF MEMBERS

Aubrianna Curtis will be the Front Desk/Administrative Assistant and the head volleyball coach. After graduating from high school in Michigan, she earned a BS degree in Psychology from Bethune-Cookman University. She was the captain of the volleyball team and an All-Academic team member at B-C U. In addition to an extensive coaching record, she has been a Human Resource Coordinator and an Office Assistant in central Florida.

Charlotte Gribbin from the United Kingdom (UK) is the newest member of our Theology Department. She has a BA degree in Theology and Philosophy, as well as an MS degree, both from Durham University in the UK. She also received a fellowship in Religious Studies from Oxford University. During the past 14 years, she has taught Religious Studies at 3 different Catholic schools in England. She will be teaching Theology classes to freshman and junior students at Lopez.

Kelly-Anne Johnson comes to us from Trinidad and Tobago, a Caribbean nation near Venezuela. She earned her BS degree from the University of London and her MA degree from the University of the West Indies. She has taught math classes at St. Joseph's Convent and at the International School of Port of Spain in Trinidad and Tobago. She will teach Algebra and Geometry courses at Lopez.

Kenneth Lane from DeLand joins our English Department and will teach freshman-level courses. Both his BA degree and his MA degree were earned at Stetson University. After being a Writing Tutor and a Teaching Assistant at Stetson, he became an Adjunct Professor of English at Bethune-Cookman University and Daytona State College.

Shaina Lilly from Port Orange will be teaching Theology classes to freshman and sophomore students at Lopez. She earned her BA degree in Religion and Philosophy from Flagler College, where she was the President of the Catholic College Fellowship. She has participated in Teen Life and other youth ministry activities at the Cathedral Basilica in St. Augustine and at Our Lady of Hope Catholic Church in Port Orange.

Philip Ransbottom from South Daytona attended the University of Florida before earning his BS degree from Troy University in Alabama. He later earned his MA degree from Stetson University. He has been a teacher, coach and a guidance counselor in the Volusia County Schools. He will be a teacher-on-assignment and an assistant coach at Lopez.

CaraJean Robertson from Lake Mary earned her BA degree in English from Spring Hill College--the Jesuit college in Mobile, Alabama. She has been an author and an editor for the Peace and Social Justice Magazine at Spring Hill, as well as a shadow teacher at Bishop Moore High School in Orlando. She will teach Honors English I and English II classes at Lopez.

Tiffany Sholtz is the other new member of our Mathematics Department. Originally from south Florida, she earned her BS degree in Accounting from Florida A & M University and two MS degrees from Nova Southeastern University. She also earned a doctoral degree from Nova Southeastern University. Dr. Sholtz has been an adjunct professor at Daytona State College and Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University, as well as a math teacher with the Volusia County Schools. She will be teaching Honors courses in Algebra II and in Statistics.