

Blessing of Marchers

Fifth Sunday in Lent | March 18, 2018

Invite those intending to march stand among the assembly, or to come forward.

Presider:

God of justice and peace,

Watch over your servants who will March For Our Lives next weekend.

They are witnesses to the truth that our children deserve to learn without fear, and that weapons of war have no place in our communities.

May all who gather in Washington, D.C., in Boston, and all over our Commonwealth, be a sign that precious in your sight is the death of your servants (Psalm 116: 13).

May all who march from this congregation be under your care and upheld by our prayers.

And may the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, be upon you and remain with you for ever.

AMEN.
