

Youth Success Story Correction

TRAINING RESOURCES OF AMERICA
INCORPORATED

Last month we shared a story regarding the graduation of Training Resources of America's HiSET (high school equivalency) program and wish to acknowledge that one of the graduates, Juan Valentine, had also received timely support and education from the HiSET class here at Workforce Central to pass his fifth and final section of the test needed for his completion while the program at TRA was on summer break. We wish to recognize the efforts of both organizations in helping Juan achieve this critical milestone."
