

LIVE FRIDAY NIGHT AND HOLIDAY SERVICES ON JBS JEWISH BROADCASTING SERVICE

Every Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur, there are those who are unable to attend a synagogue service in person. Some are ill and are unable to travel. Some, due to age, are homebound. And some who live outside of urban centers have no easy access to a synagogue. That is also true for weekly Shabbat Services. JBS offers these services live from Central Synagogue in New York City on television providers throughout the country.

The weekly services are on every Friday night at 6:00 pm.

Here is the schedule of High Holiday telecasts on JBS (Eastern Time) for this September.
