

Please help get the word out at your agency for this upcoming webinar.

Topic: Meeting the Needs of Seniors

Description: People encounter a variety of barriers when looking for a job; one that we hear often is related to age. This presentation will provide an in-depth discussion of common barriers mature workers face when launching a job search and strategic approaches to overcoming these barriers. It will include an overview of how family services and career services can work together for the good of the client. Opportunities for inter-agency referrals will be reviewed.

DATE/TIME: Monday September 11th at 1pm eastern time

Register now:

<https://register.gotowebinar.com/register/283396208420177155>

Presenters:

Mauri Malka, LCSW, is Director of Family Services at Jewish Family & Career Services in Louisville, KY.

Mauri has over 30 years of social service experience, specializing in geriatrics, case management, long term care planning, homecare training and caregiver issues. She was instrumental in developing a one-stop senior program that offers a full menu of services to seniors and their family including transportation and homemaker services. Under her direction, JFCS has become recognized as a training center for home care aides and as such provides over 500 hours of training annually.

Andrea Brown, MRC, CRC, is a Career Counselor at Jewish Family & Career Services in Louisville, KY.

Andrea Brown has been a career counselor with JFCS for 7 years, with a total of 10 years of experience in employment services. Throughout her experience, Andrea has developed a passion for working with people with disabilities and other significant barriers to employment. She holds a bachelor's degree in psychology from the University of Louisville and a master's degree in Rehabilitation Counseling from the University of Kentucky. She is a Certified Rehabilitation Counselor with the Commission on Rehabilitation Counseling Certification. She is married with a 15-month-old son and 3 fur babies.