

SAVE THE DATE

Pushing the Boundaries: Disability, Inclusion and Jewish Community

April 15 -17, 2018

The first national conference of its kind designed for people with disabilities and their family members, self advocates, policy makers, professionals and volunteers who are dedicated to creating inclusive Jewish communities.

Location: Beth Emeth Bais Yehuda Synagogue
100 Elder St, Toronto ON M3H 5G7

JEWISH FEDERATIONS OF CANADA - UIA
הסתדרות היהודית בקנדה - איה
FÉDÉRATION JUIVE DU CANADA - UIA

UJA FEDERATION
100
1917-2017

United Jewish Appeal
of Greater Toronto

Dani
Developing and Nurturing Independence

the network
NETWORK OF JEWISH
HUMAN SERVICE AGENCIES

Fondation
Azrieli Foundation

The conference will feature:

Keynote Speakers • Workshops • Round Table Discussions • Poster Boards
• Information Fair • Site Visits • Films • Networking Opportunities

For more information please contact:

Robin Gofine

rgofine@ujafed.org

Vice President, Strategic Community Planning and Engagement
UJA Federation of Greater Toronto

Linda Kislowicz

lkislowicz@jfcuia.org

President & CEO

Jewish Federations of Canada - UIA

Leviya Mendelsohn

inclusion@mnjcc.org

Manager of Accessibility and Inclusion, Miles Nadal Jewish Community Centre

Susie Sokol

ssokol@dani-toronto.com

Co-Founder & Director,

DANI Developing and Nurturing Independence;
Chair, Toronto Jewish Disability Network