Civil Action No. _____

ASSURANCE OF VOLUNTARY COMPLIANCE

I. PARTIES

1.0 This Assurance of Voluntary Compliance ("Assurance") is entered into by the Commonwealth of Virginia, by, through and at the relation of its Attorney General, Mark R. Herring (the "Attorney General" or the "Commonwealth"), and Field Asset Service Team, LLC ("FAST"); VIM Holdings, LLC ("VIM"); MR Capital Group, LLC ("MRC"); Nascent Holdings, LLC ("Nascent" or "NH"); B Financial, LLC ("BF"); DTS Capital, LLC ("DTS"); Bradley Goldberg & Miller, LLC ("BGM"); and U Solutions Group, LLC ("USG"); collectively, the "Defendants."

1.1 FAST is a Delaware limited liability company headquartered in Wood Dale, Illinois. FAST operated as a lender, providing loans to consumers in Virginia solely via the Internet. FAST uses the website address www.lineofcreditnow.net.

1.2 VIM is a Delaware limited liability company headquartered in Wood Dale, Illinois. VIM operated as a lender, providing loans to consumers in Virginia solely via the Internet. VIM uses the trade name "EZ Credit Line" and the website address www.ezcreditline.net.

1.3 MRC is a Delaware limited liability company headquartered in Wood Dale, Illinois. MRC operated as a lender, providing loans to consumers in Virginia solely via the Internet. MRC uses the trade name "Money Credit Line" and the website address www.moneycreditline.com.

1.4 NH is a Delaware limited liability company headquartered in Wood Dale, Illinois. NH operated as a lender, providing loans to consumers in Virginia solely via the Internet. NH uses the trade name "Line of Credit Now" and the website address www.lineofcreditnow.com.

1.5 BF is a Delaware limited liability company headquartered in Wood Dale, Illinois.

BF operated as a lender, providing loans to consumers in Virginia solely via the Internet. BF uses the trade name “Guaranteed Cash Now” and the website address www.guaranteedcashnow.net.

1.6 DTS is a Delaware limited liability company headquartered in Wood Dale, Illinois. DTS operated as a lender and uses the website address www.quickintocash.com, but on information and belief, has not made any loans to Virginians.

1.7 FAST, VIM, MRC, NH, BF and DTS are referred to collectively hereinafter as “the Lenders.” The Lenders all used the same physical and mailing addresses, the same phone numbers, fax numbers and contact information, and used identical website content in their dealings with Virginians.

1.8 BGM is a Wyoming limited liability company, headquartered in Wood Dale, Illinois. BGM sent debt collection communications to Virginia consumers and their employers to implement wage assignments for the Lenders.

1.9 USG is a Wyoming limited liability company, headquartered in Wood Dale, Illinois. USG sent debt collection communications to Virginia consumers regarding their loans with the Lenders.

1.10 With the exception of BF, each of the named defendants is under the control of the same individual, a resident of Illinois.

1.11 The Defendants do not contest that they have advertised to and served Virginia consumers.¹ The Defendants consent to and waive all objections to this Court’s jurisdiction for all matters relating to this Assurance’s entry, execution, monitoring and enforcement. The Defendants further waive all objections they may have to venue in this Court for all matters relating to this Assurance’s entry, execution, monitoring and enforcement.

II. COMMONWEALTH'S POSITION

2.0 The statements contained in this Section II represent the position of the Attorney General.

2.1 The Commonwealth alleges that the Lenders were at all relevant times mentioned herein, "suppliers" of "goods" or "services," and engaged in "consumer transactions," as those terms are defined in § 59.1-198 of the Virginia Consumer Protection Act ("VCPA"), Virginia Code §§ 59.1-196 through 59.1-207, by advertising, offering and providing open-end credit plan loans to individual Virginia consumers via the Internet.

2.2 The Commonwealth alleges that BGM and USG were at all relevant times mentioned herein, "suppliers" of "goods" or "services," and engaged in "consumer transactions," as those terms are defined in § 59.1-198 of the VCPA by communicating with individual Virginia consumers and their employers regarding the consumers' open-end credit plan loans with the Lenders.

2.3 During the period from 2015 to June 19, 2017 ("the Relevant Period"), FAST, VIM, MRC, NH, and BF offered to make and made open-end credit plan loans to Virginia consumers via the Internet. DTS offered to make similar loans to Virginia consumers.

2.4 FAST, VIM, MRC, NH, and BF charged, contracted for, and received interest in excess of the statutory limit of twelve percent (12%) per year set forth in Virginia Code § 6.2-303.

2.5 The loans advertised and offered by the Lenders were not compliant with Virginia's open-end credit plan statute, Virginia Code § 6.2-312, which operates as an exception to the Virginia statutory limit of twelve percent (12%) in Virginia Code § 6.2-303. Section 6.2-312 permits lenders, in connection with open-end credit plans, to charge finance charges and other fees at agreed-upon rates, provided that a finance charge is not imposed during a minimum twenty-five day grace period (the “Grace Period”) during which the borrower may repay the principal balance.

2.6 During the Relevant Period, FAST, VIM, MRC, NH, and BF imposed, on all of their open-end credit borrowers, a “cash advance fee” of $5.00, a “service fee” of $80.00, and an “activation fee” of $15.00, without application of an appropriate finance-charge grace period. FAST, VIM, MRC, NH, and BF also imposed interest during the Grace Period.

2.7 FAST, VIM, MRC, NH, and BF provided in their contracts that consumers were being provided the loans at an annual interest rate of 9.99%, but they also charged consumers a “service fee” of $80.00 per billing cycle, where the billing cycles and payments occurred at least bi-monthly. The service fee was effectively interest under the guise of a different name, and calculated together with the 9.99% advertised “interest” sharply increased the cost of the loans² and exceeded the 12% annual limit.

2.8 By failing to provide their borrowers with an applicable finance-charge grace period, the lending conduct of FAST, VIM, MRC, NH, and BF fell squarely within the 12% annual interest rate cap set forth in § 6.2-303, which they violated by charging interest and other charges in excess of the 12% annual limit.

2.9 FAST, VIM, MRC, NH, and BF also included a wage assignment provision in their contracts with Virginia consumers, which attempted to permit these Lenders to collect payments directly from the consumer’s wages instead of allowing the consumer to select when and how the consumer’s payments are made.

² The vast majority of the loans offered by these Lenders were for amounts of $400 and under. The $160 per month average cost for the service fee significantly increases the cost of the loan over time.

2.10 BGM worked in conjunction with the Lenders, and sent written debt collection communications to consumers and their employers in order to induce consumers to make payment on the loans.

2.11 BGM also sent these written communications to consumers' employers as part of its process to implement the wage assignments. The wage assignments operated to notify employers about the consumers' purported debts with the Lenders, instruct the employers to deduct amounts from the consumers' wages, and instruct employers to pay those amounts to BGM and/or the Lenders prior to the consumers receiving their paychecks.

2.12 The wage assignments did not comply with the governing Virginia statute, Virginia Code § 40.1-31, as they were not a "separate instrument" from the body of the contract (§ 40.1-31(2)), they were not signed by the consumers in person (§ 40.1-31(2)), they were not signed in triplicate (§ 40.1-31(2)), and they attempted to permit the Defendants to use the wage assignments against future employers (§ 40.1-31(4)).

2.13 USG also worked in conjunction with the Lenders by sending debt collection communications to Virginia consumers regarding their loans with the Lenders, advising them that payments were due or that payments had been debited from consumers' bank accounts.

2.14 The Commonwealth contends that the Lenders violated § 59.1-200(A)(5) and (14) of the VCPA by misrepresenting the legality of the interest rate imposed on the loans they offered to Virginia consumers.

2.15 The Commonwealth contends that BGM violated § 59.1-200(A)(14) of the VCPA by implementing and using illegal wage assignments to obtain payments from Virginia consumers.

2.16 The Commonwealth contends that USG violated § 59.1-200(A)(14) of the VCPA by misrepresenting that Virginia consumers were required to make payments on their loans, which were in violation of the open-end credit statute.

2.17 The Lenders have ceased new lending in Virginia and ceased collection on all of their loans in Virginia.

2.18 The Defendants have cooperated with the Office of the Attorney General in connection with its inquiry.

III. DEFENDANT'S POSITION

3.0 The statements contained in this Section III represent the position of the Defendants.

3.1 Defendants do not contest the allegations in Paragraphs 2.1 and 2.2 but they deny the allegations in Paragraphs 2.3 through 2.16 of this Assurance.
