Say YES to Summer Service Program for High School Students at St Peter Parish!

YES is a four-day service program and retreat for high school students. Teens will work in teams with adult volunteers to paint, clean, and repair homes for elderly and needy families in our community. Say YES to this awesome opportunity to have fun with your friends while living out your faith by serving others!

How to sign up...

High school students (Class of '20 '19, '18, '17) can sign up with these forms. Registration is limited to 25 students and is accepted first come first served basis.

Commitment: Students arrive @ St Peter @ 4:00PM on Wednesday June 7th until 6:00PM on Saturday June 10th

Skills Needed: Willing to work hard together in community with your peers!

Cost: $50.00 (includes meals, lodging, social events and official t-shirt)

Registration: Submit this registration form/medical release with cash/check payable to St Peter Parish by May 15th to the parish office to reserve your spot. Please ask about scholarship opportunities if cost limits a student's participation.

Students will be living in community and sharing meals together at St Peter. Days will be spent painting, cleaning and repairing homes. Mornings and evenings will provide opportunities for praying together, sharing our experiences, and social time together.
