

2017-2018

CIRB Emerging Leaders Program

CIRB is excited to announce that applications are now open for its third Emerging Leaders Program (ELP) class. The ELP is designed for professionals in the crop insurance industry who want to increase their knowledge while advocating for the crop insurance and reinsurance community on key issues. Read below for more information on the program and see why you should get involved. For information about last year's class or more details about how to apply, visit: cropinsurance.org/leaders/

Why Participate?

- Enhance your leadership skills & knowledge of policy issues
- Receive hands-on guidance from CIRB staff and other industry partners
- Participate in networking events around the country with industry leaders
- Access webinars and policy updates to stay aware of the issues that matter most to your company

To Apply:

- 1) Visit www.cropsinsurance.org/leaders
- 2) Fill out the program application
- 3) Submit application by July 31

(Note: applicants must be nominated by an individual from a CIRB member company.)

Questions? Contact: 202-544-0056 or visit www.cropinsurance.org/leaders/

Sponsored by:

CIRB

Crop Insurance and Reinsurance Bureau, Inc.

Program Schedule:

August: ELP Participants Announced

September: "Introduction to the Crop Insurance Industry" Webinar

October: Crop Insurance Government Affairs Webinar

November 6-8: EC Meeting and Fly-In, Washington, D.C.

December: Meetings with Congressional District Office

January 7-8: Industry Networking Event, Overland Park

January 31-February 2: CIRB Annual Meeting, Scottsdale, AZ

March: Communication Activity

April: CIRB Spring Fly-In & Policy Conference, Washington, D.C.

Participate in meetings and networking events with leaders in Washington, D.C. and Kansas City.

(Pictured: ELP class with former USDA Deputy Secretary Krysta Harden during fall fly-in.)

Enhance your knowledge of policy issues and advocate for the industry in meetings on Capitol Hill.

(Pictured: CIRB ELP with Rep. Rodney Davis (R-IL.)

Attend the ELP networking event hosted at the CIRB Annual Meeting and talk with ELP alumni.

