

NEW COLLEGE of Christian Practice

JESUS

We go deep in the mystery of the Word of God

INCARNATE

Our practices are concrete and face-to-face

STRUCTURE

Our structures hold us to our best intentions

FALL 2018

Join one of three monthly conversations on the first Wednesday of the month, September through December, from 7 to 8:30pm in downtown San Rafael. The three are:

Who Is My Neighbor? Prayerful reflection on demographic information of the North Bay focusing on income, education and health, including a focus on youth. Led by the Rev. Christopher Martin, Rector of St. Paul's and the Rev. Rod Miles, Chief Pastor of Grace Marin.

The Necessary Wisdom of Medieval Women. Female writers of this era saw the truth of God in the world in ways we need to rediscover now to in order to bring necessary wisdom to some of our most vexing contemporary problems. Led by Waldorf School teacher Meg Gorman and the Rev. Carol Luther, Vicar of St. Aidan's, Bolinas.

What is Christian Justice? Explore various ways justice is understood and enacted from a Christian perspective. Led by Jacob Moody, retired Executive Director of the Bay View/Hunter's Point Foundation and the Rev. Kirsten Snow-Spalding, Rector of the Church of the Nativity, San Rafael and an attorney labor and environmental law.

Open House	Class Schedule	Evening Prayer at 6:30pm Hospitality at 8:30pm $40 for fall term
8/25 9 to 11am	9/5, 10/3, 11/7, 12/5 7 to 8:30pm

St. Paul's
1123 Court St., San Rafael
<http://stpaulssanrafael.org>
(415) 456-484

New College of Christian Practice is a center for Christian conversation and coaching with the goal of nurturing Seven Core Christian Practices: Prayer, Worship, Service, Generosity, Scriptural Fluency, Discerning Call and Joining a Structured Small Group. For more information, please visit therestorationproject.net.