To my fellow Kiwanians:
It has been the highest honor for me to have served as your Governor this past year. It truly has been the most enjoyable year I have had during my 38 years in Kiwanis. You all have been remarkable. Throughout the KT District from Bristol and Johnson City to Clarksville and Owensboro and in every division and club in between, my official visits have been a joy.

You all are to be commended for the great work being done to help the children in your communities, young and old, in the name of Kiwanis. Great examples are Train Rides in West Liberty, KY, Imagination Library in Maryville, TN, Special Olympics in Richmond, KY and a playground in Chattanooga, TN. And I will never forget the golf tournament in Paris, KY, and that beautiful granny dress.

To my lieutenant governors, you all have been terrific. From Lieutenant Governor Training to the present you have led with enthusiasm. We worked through issues together during our bimonthly conference calls. Sharing ideas to resolve issues together not only got us through those issues, but helped us grow as we resolved them. You have assumed your positions with an energy and dedication that was commendable.

My thanks go to the Executive Committee for continual support during the year as we worked together to prepare the Mid-Year Conference and the 2017 KT Convention. It was a pleasure to experience such a united effort as we moved the district forward.

I would be remiss if I didn’t mention my undying praise for the tireless work of our district secretary, Fran, and for Vivian, a person I consider to be the greatest administrative assistant in all of Kiwanis. The work they do daily for all of us leads the way, and they are recognized for that work both inside and outside our district.

When it comes to growth, you all have been unbelievable. Our new member growth is close to 707 and our net growth is 252. You are leading the way. You grew Key Club by starting 13 new clubs. You grew Builders Clubs and K-Kids. The way you embraced and grew our Aktion Clubs throughout the District has been amazing.
FIRST LADY’S LETTER

As my year as KT District First Lady ends, I look back at all the incredible things we did together. The way you all adopted the service project I suggested has been unbelievable. Putting those bags together at the convention and seeing everyone go through the lines to fill them, gives me a vision I will never forget. To my wife, I want you to know that your support and energy has been my driving force throughout this year. As I have told you before you are the greatest thing to walk into my life.

I will be eternally grateful for the way you all adopted the First Lady’s project. The way you all donated was unbelievable. Putting those bags together at the convention and seeing everyone go through the lines to fill them, gives me a vision I will never forget. To my wife, I want you to know that your support and energy has been my driving force throughout this year. As I have told you before you are the greatest thing to walk into my life.

I wish Governor Dale and his board a great year and I encourage us all to get behind him and his board as you did for me and my board. It is that support and teamwork that will continue to move our great district onward to new heights.

In closing, as our Kiwanis year – 2016-2017 – and my term as your Governor fast comes to a close, I want to thank you all again from the bottom of my heart for making this the most memorable year I have ever had in Kiwanis. God Bless you all. Remember #KIDS NEED KIWANIS

With Gratitude and Love
Your First Lady 2016-2017
Linda Chagnon
YOU DECIDE

We’re not sure what he might have been up to. Your editor and very amateur photographer (well, okay, let’s be honest – amateur picture taker, at best) was casually trying out his telephoto lens, taking long distance pictures. Seeing Past Governor Chuck who appeared to be unaware of the camera being pointed at him, and who was eating his meal (enthusiastically, we might add), we decided to “sneak up on him” with the telephoto lens and take his picture when he wasn’t looking.

This picture shows us what we got. Is that a look of devious mischievousness on his face? What had he done? What was he up to? Did he actually know the camera was taking his picture? Had he taken second helpings when instructed to take only one helping, perhaps helping himself to what was on Dale’s plate and hoping to not get caught? Was he really trying to make us think he was Dale Hawkins by positioning himself behind that name card? Whatever the look on his face meant, we leave it up to you to decide. We just thought it was a fun picture from a very amateur picture taker who obviously isn’t going to become an amateur (or professional) photographer anytime soon.

THE DISTRICT SECRETARY’S CORNER

District Secretary – Fran Marion

There are still some Kiwanis clubs that have not reported their election results. We need to get all officers for 2017-18 reported before the end of September. Please call Vivian at the district office at 859-721-5685 and give her your club officers ASAP.

Club treasurers need to collect all of the 2016-2017 club bank records and financial reports for the annual club audit that is to be done after October 1. This is required (see your club bylaws).

2017-18 Presidents – Are you and your committee working on your budgets (both administrative and service) for next year?

2017-18 Presidents and Secretaries “must” be trained by September 30th of this year. If you have not completed training, please do the on-line training ASAP. This must be done every year – even if you have held the position “forever.”

FROM THE EDITOR

In the last issue of the KT Notes we shared some information from the life of 95 year old Bowling Green Kiwanian, Hayward Minton. For the editorial in this issue of the KT Notes, we are sharing information received during interviews of randomly selected Kiwanians from clubs in the Kentucky-Tennessee District. These Kiwanians were interviewed at the convention in Louisville, and they shared some facts about their lives. It is planned that additional randomly selected Kiwanians will be interviewed at the Mid-Year Conference. From these interviews we are writing brief sketches. The sketch that follows in this month’s issue is about one of those three Kiwanians interviewed at the convention. Two others who were interviewed will remain anonymous for now but their stories will appear in either the November or the January KT Notes. In this issue we share Knoxville, Tennessee Kiwanian, Ira Gladson’s story. We hope you enjoy reading this and other sketches as much as we enjoy preparing and writing them.
IRA GLADSON, KEY CLUB ADMINISTRATOR EMERITUS

Ira Gladson is a member of the Knoxville Downtown Kiwanis Club which he joined in 1967 and where he has served on many committees and as club president. It was there that he met Bo Shafer. Ira revealed an interesting piece of information about Bo. This man, who would later attain the highest office in Kiwanis, International President, ran for president of the Downtown Club in those early years and was defeated by one vote.

It has been said that those of us who were middle children in our families could be in danger of feeling left out, even in danger of feeling like we were invisible. In Ira Gladson’s family there were 10 children and he was the middle child. However, he did not say he felt left out or invisible, and if he did, he certainly overcame the obstacles that go with those feelings.

Ira was born at home in Knoxville, Tennessee. His family consisted of hard-working folks — his grandparents who were farmers, his father a factory worker and his mother who was a housewife. From this humble family Ira learned well; he is a humble man who wears his humility well.

He did well in school. Although he didn’t talk about his elementary school, it can be surmised from what he said that he was a good student right from the beginning. What he did say was that he liked to learn, and he said he liked to study. In high school he was a serious student and was selected for the National Honor Society, and he was editor of his high school year book. Ira’s serious studying paid off, and he achieved the distinction of being the valedictorian of his graduating class.

The Gladson’s were not wealthy people but with the proximity of the university Ira was able to continue his education after high school, earning a bachelor’s degree in Natural Science from the University of Tennessee. Finishing that degree, he stayed in school another year and earned his Master’s degree in Guidance and Counseling. Degrees in hand, he accepted a position in the Gatlinburg school system where he taught one year.

Ira had participated in ROTC at the University of Tennessee and upon graduation he received a reserve commission as an officer in the United States Army. This was the 1950s and the time of the Cold War and following his year as a teacher, he was called to active duty as a lieutenant. He was in the Transportation Corps serving first in Fort Eustis, Virginia and then at Frobisher Bay in Newfoundland where he served in an army transportation unit.

Returning to civilian life, Ira accepted a teaching position in South High School in the Knoxville City Schools, a position he held for 10 years. When the South High School Key Club advisor resigned in 1959, Ira was appointed Key Club Faculty Advisor.

Someone saw in Ira characteristics that we Kiwanians have also seen, and he was appointed to a position in the Knoxville City Schools Central Office as Supervisor of Guidance and Testing. He held that position for five years and probably would have been a supervisor longer except for the fact that the county and city school systems merged into one school system, eliminating his position.

He was always thorough and meticulous in his teaching, and he never took a sick day even when he was so sick he probably should have stayed home. Although no one could have known it at the time, these characteristics and events would result in Kiwanis prominence for this sincere, caring, hardworking man. His continued work as a guidance counselor resulted in many interesting experiences. One he described involved a 13 year old girl who came to him for counseling, confiding that she was pregnant when, as it turned out, she was not.

He was quickly recognized for his outstanding work with the South High School Key Club. Ira was awarded the Key of Honor by the International Key Club Board. This award is given in recognition of an individual who has gone above and beyond the call of duty in dedicating his or her energy to serving the youth of our nation.

In 1967 Ira’s outstanding work with Key Clubs was being recognized by Kiwanians in the KT District. He was asked to be involved with the KT District Key Club being appointed Co-Administrator by Andy Hutson. In 1984 he became Key Club Administrator, appointed to that position by Governor George Harding, and Ira served with distinction many years. As the years passed, he began preparing Steve to be his successor.

On April 1, 2003 Ira retired as KT Key Club Administrator and he turned the District Key Club responsibilities over to Steve and others. The leaders of our district showed their recognition and appreciation for his work, honoring Ira by naming him Key Club Administrator Emeritus, a title by which he continues to be recognized. Additionally, when Wayne Sullivan was governor, a Key Club scholarship was added to that honor and it was named the Ira Gladson Key Club Scholarship. From 1959 to the present Ira continues his involvement with the Kentucky-Tennessee Key Clubs, attending their annual convention and other functions.

Asked what his hobbies are, Ira revealed that his principal hobby is reading plays and going to plays. He has been a member of the Play of the Month Club which mailed him many of the plays he reads. He has frequently gone to New York to see plays and because he is a sharing man, he often takes friends with him.

There were, of course, bumps along the road. Once Ira, who describes himself as a back row Baptist, taught a Civics Religions of the World course. Ironically, Ira, who cares so much for young people and who works so hard to be correct in everything he does, was accused by a student of being an atheist. In spite of any bumps in the road, Ira has become lifelong friends with many of his former students whom he often encounters in the community.

We believe that all of his friends would agree that Ira is a modest, humble, self-effacing man who prefers not to be the center of attention. Yet, his outstanding achievements have pushed him to the center of attention and we think he deserves to be held in high esteem as an example of the kind of Kiwanian we all should want to become, a Kiwanian we would all do well to emulate. Thank you, Ira Gladson for 36 years of outstanding leadership and service to young people as a Kiwanian, a kind human being, and as Key Club Administrator in the KT Kiwanis District.

IN MEMORY OF ELLEN COULTER

Ellen Marie Coulter passed away Sunday, August 13 after a courageous battle with cancer. She was the wife of David Coulter, KT District Aktion Club Administrator, and a CLE Instructor. Ellen, formerly of Owosso, Michigan, lived with David in Sevierville, TN. Please join us in expressing our sincere and profound condolences to David and his family.

JUST FOR LAUGHS
A Minneapolis couple decided to go to Florida to thaw out during a particularly icy winter. They planned to stay at the same hotel where they spent their honeymoon 20 years earlier.

Because of their hectic schedules, it was difficult for the couple to coordinate their travel plans. So the husband left Minnesota and flew to Florida on Thursday, while his wife planned to fly down the following day.

The husband checked into the hotel. There was a computer in his room, so he decided to send an email to his wife. However, he accidentally left out one letter of her email address, and sent the email without realizing his error.

Meanwhile, somewhere in Houston, a widow had just returned home from her husband's funeral. He was a Baptist minister who was called home to glory following a heart attack. The widow decided to check her email, expecting condolence messages from family and friends. But after reading her very first email, she screamed and fainted.

The widow’s son rushed into the room, found his mother on the floor, and saw the computer screen which read:

To: My Loving Wife
Subject: I’ve Arrived
Date: March 21, 2012

I know you’re surprised to hear from me. They have computers here now and you are allowed to send emails to your loved ones. I’ve just arrived and have been checked in. I’ve seen that everything has been prepared for your arrival tomorrow. Looking forward to seeing you then! Hope your journey is as uneventful as mine was.

P. S. Sure is hot down here!!!

THE FIRST LADY’S PROJECT IN ACTION

DOVER, TENNESSEE. Dr. Rita Tinsley delivered four book bags filled with school supplies received in a Kentucky-Tennessee Kiwanis District Convention project in Louisville, Kentucky. Approximately 240 Kiwanians lined up down a long hallway with tables of school supplies in the Louisville Marriott Hotel and filled the bags. It was decided that a representative of each Kiwanis Club in attendance at the convention, would receive four bags to take back to schools in their home area. President-elect Tinsley of the Dover Kiwanis Club delivered two bags each to North Stewart Elementary School and the Dover Elementary School. The supplies were to go to children who really needed them. Schools all over Kentucky and Tennessee received supplies from the project.

CORBIN, KENTUCKY. The Corbin Kiwanis Club delivered school supplies to the Corbin Primary School where Travis Wilder is principal and Tonya Proffitt is Assistant Principal. The goodies were delivered to Mrs. Misty Wilson’s classroom where Reed Elliotte is in the first grade. Reed’s mother, Larrietta Elliott is a 15-year member of the Corbin Kiwanis Club. The school supplies were donated from a project of the year, organized by current KT Kiwanis District First Lady, Linda Chagnon.

WINCHESTER, KENTUCKY. These pictures show Kiwanians from the Winchester Club visiting Baker Intermediate School and Strode Station Elementary School to present supplies from Linda Chagnon’s First Lady’s project.

GLASGOW VOLLEYBALL

The Glasgow Kiwanis Club recently made a donation to the Glasgow High School and Barren County High School Volleyball Teams before their game which was played at Barren County High School. The $1,000 donation was divided between the two schools, $500.00 to each team.
Seniors from two high schools, located in Richmond, KY, were recently awarded $500 scholarships by the Kiwanis Club of Richmond. The recipients were: Sahana Holla from Model High School and Raegan Coyle from Madison Central High School.

Sahana is the president of her senior class, president of the Model School National Honor Society, and has been active in the Model School Key Club from 2014 through 2017. Sahana will major in Biology and Neuroscience at the University of Kentucky.

Raegan has been the Key Club Vice President from 2015-2017, has been active in Math Chicks and has been active in athletics at Madison Central High School. Kim will major in Psychology at Eastern Kentucky University.

The Kiwanis Club of Richmond is the sponsor of the Key Clubs at both high schools.
Recently in Chattanooga, the Howard School Key Club participated with the Chattanooga Downtown Kiwanis Club in completing work on the playground and fitness trail that they had been building at the Howard School. Dwight Watt from the KT District, parents, and others from the community also participated in this worthwhile building project.

FROM YOUR K-KIDS ADMINISTRATOR
Edye Bryant

The school year has started around the District, and our K-Kids clubs are ready for a great year!

A big K-KIDS WELCOME to our newest Club at Western Elementary in Georgetown, KY, sponsored by the Scott County (Georgetown, Thursday Night), Kiwanis Club.

If your Kiwanis Secretary has not yet updated the Kiwanis Adviser information via the Secretary's Dashboard, please do so as quickly as possible. During September International will be sending the K-Kids Club Kits for the year – the materials will be based on the number of expected K-Kids members that were listed in August. If you need additional supplies, please contact Member Services at 1-800 KIWANIS.

If you need to update the Faculty Adviser information for your K-Kids, you will need to email member services at kiwanis.org. Please include the school name, K-Kids club number (it will start with a "P"), the name of the sponsoring Kiwanis club, and, of course, the new adviser's name. If your Kiwanis club or school advisers are not receiving the monthly K-Kids newsletter from Kiwanis International, their names and contact information may need to be updated.

I hope to have regular District K-Kids newsletters/emails out this year. It is much easier to do this with up to date contact information. Feel free to email your Kiwanis and school adviser names and emails to me at Edyeb68@gmail.com

New this year, with both K-Kids and Builder's clubs is the IDEA Toolkit. This is a handy, easy to read and easy to follow guide for selecting, planning, implementing, and reflecting on club projects. Worksheets and examples will assist advisers in leading K-Kids members through all the steps of any project, including budgeting and fundraising. This handy guide can easily be used by all members of the Kiwanis family, regardless of age! You can review the IDEA Toolkit Booklet at this link: http://www.kiwaniskids.org/en/KKids/IDEA.aspx

K-Kids clubs are also being encouraged to show off their creative side. The K-Kids contests are divided up into two sections this year.

The first one will encourage our K-Kids to show off and share their ideas for club promotion and recruitment via posters and videos of club activities. Members can share their passion for service in a speech. They can share how they and their club have identified service needs within their community via an essay. The deadline for this group of contests is December 1, 2017

Leadership and overall club achievement awards will have a May 1st, 2018 deadline. Clubs can submit their overall achievement report, outstanding officer and adviser, nominations, club scrapbook, and K-Kids leadership awards. Details for all contests, as well as entry forms and procedures can be found at http://www.kiwaniskids.org/en/KKids/Lead/Contests.aspx
A KIWANIS CLUB PARTNERS WITH A SCHOOL
Edye Bryant

The Kiwanis Club of Lexington, Kentucky celebrated the start of more than 25 years of partnering with their Harrison Elementary School Family during early August.

On Thursday August 10th, Kiwanians hosted the dinner portion of the annual Ready Fest Back To School Night. Members served sandwiches, chips, cookies and lemonade to the nearly 300 students, staff, and parents in attendance.

The annual Teacher’s Lunch on Tuesday, August 15th, drew a crowd of 70 Kiwanians, teachers, and staff from Harrison Elementary, and was held at The Barrel House in Downtown Lexington. Kiwanians had an opportunity to claim a classroom, grade level, or special area to mentor during the upcoming school year. Kiwanians assist students with reading, math, music, art, choosing library books, by having lunch with their class, and by serving as official Swing Pushers at recess.

During lunch, the Kiwanis Club of Lexington presented a check for $3,000 to Harrison Principal Tammie Frankes, along with several bags of school supplies from the 2016-2017 KT District First Lady's Project. A drawing was also held for passes to Holiday World, which was won by a staff member at the Harrison Healthy Kids Clinic.

During the school year, members of the Kiwanis Club of Lexington will assist with the Scholastic Book Fairs, chaperone field trips, Parent's Nights, and other special events. The highlights always include the Harrison Thanksgiving Lunch which this year is scheduled for Tuesday November 21st and which will feature whole turkeys carved for the students and staff. ✤
