REVIEW PROCESS:

The Traffic Impact Study (TIS) was prepared by Bowman-Spielman LLC's traffic engineer, reviewed and approved by both Washington County and MDSHA.

The TIS includes recommendations for improvements. MDSHA and Washington County TIS approval letters include required road improvements.

The site development plan was submitted to Washington County Department of Plan Review & Permitting for review and routing to all applicable review/approval agencies.

Agency review/approvals received from:

- Washington County Plan Review Department
- MDSHA
- Washington County Soil Conservation District
- Washington County Health Department
- Washington County Department of Water Quality
- City of Hagerstown Water Department

The site development plan included required off-site road improvements required by MDSHA.

APPROVAL PROCESS:

Once the applicable agencies review and approve the site development plan, the plan is placed on the Planning Commission regular meeting agenda for approval action.

Any person aggrieved by the Planning Commission action may appeal to the Board of Zoning appeals within 30 days of the action.
