

Summit Awards NBA Award Category Descriptions

General Contractor of the Year

This award recognizes a General Contracting firm that has contributed to the continued success of the commercial real estate community. This firm has also distinguished itself in each of the following aspects: within Summit awards sponsoring entities, through community involvement, and by various other affiliations and achievements.

Sub-Contractor of the Year

This award recognizes a Sub-Contracting firm that has contributed to the continued success of the commercial real estate community. This firm has also distinguished itself in each of the following aspects: within Summit awards sponsoring entities, through community involvement, and by various other affiliations and achievements.

Design Professional of the Year

This award recognizes an Architecture-Engineering firm that has contributed to the continued success of the commercial real estate community. This firm has also distinguished itself in each of the following aspects: within Summit awards sponsoring entities, through community involvement, and by various other affiliations and achievements.

Question:	Size
Please provide a brief description of your firm and specialties. Please include the total number of employees.	450 Words
Why do you think your firm should receive this award:	450 Words
Identify service/participation in Summit Awards sponsoring entities in 2017.	450 Words
Identify total number of commercial real estate projects by project type (Office, Industrial, Retail) contracted and/or completed in Northern Nevada during 2017 and highlight the notable projects.	450 Words
List principals/key employees of the firm and any professional designations or certifications they have earned.	450 Words
List any community service or community involvement by the firm in 2017.	450 Words
How has your firm adapted and been "forward thinking", helping not only the firm but also our industry move forward?	250 Words
Please upload: One (1) high resolution professional quality photograph to represent the firm.	x
Please upload: up to Five (5) high resolution images to support the submission.	x
Please Upload: One (1) high resolution company logo	x