Reverend Karl Travis

Not long into his first pastorate the Rev. Karl Travis realized that issues of faith and finance were central to his parishioners' discipleship, and that he was largely unprepared to help. Thus began an immersion in studying, praying, and preaching about Christian generosity. The Rev. Karl Travis is senior pastor of First Presbyterian Church, Fort Worth, Texas. He is a graduate of Trinity University and the University of Edinburgh, and is the recipient of a Doctorate of Humane Letters from Austin College. Married to Jaci, they parent 6 children: one in graduate school, one about to be in graduate school, two undergraduates, and two about to be undergraduates.
