Finals Week is a unique week at St. Croix Prep Upper School. Students are expected to find out when exams are being held and to prepare for those exams accordingly. Final Exams can be very stressful. It is important that you prioritize a study plan in order to prepare yourself to succeed on your exams. There are times within the schedule that are designated specifically for study and preparation. Students should use those sessions to prepare.

- You are not required to attend study hall sessions unless you choose to stay in the building.
