Pioneer Temple Tour February 27 – March 2, 2018

Here is a brief itinerary of the tour:

February 27: We will depart early this morning from the Courtyard Marriott in Sandy, UT. Our first temple will be the (what will be) newly dedicated Cedar City Temple. After lunch, we will attend the St. George Temple, the oldest operating temple of this dispensation. While traveling, we will hear the history and the stories of the St. George Temple and the Kirtland Temple.

February 28: Our morning will be spent visiting the historical sites of St. George which include Brigham Young's home, the Pioneer Tabernacle, and Jacob Hamblin's home. After lunch, we will travel to the Manti Temple. While traveling to Manti, we will learn the history and the stories of the Manti Temple, and the Nauvoo Temple.

March 1: Our day begins by attending the Provo City Center Temple, originally built in 1898 as a Tabernacle. We will also attend the Logan Temple today. While traveling, we will hear the history and the stories of these two temples, and the temple sites of Adam-ondi-Ahman and Far West.

March 2: Today we will attend the Brigham City Temple and the Salt Lake Temple. The history, details, and stories of the building of the Salt Lake Temple will be told while we travel. We will also spend a few hours at Temple Square visiting each of the historical sites before enjoying a catered dinner at the Lion House.

Join Tom Pettit on this incredible spiritual journey to our Pioneer Temples. Hear Tom tell the stories and teach the fascinating histories of these sacred places. Also hear the histories and stories of our other Pioneer Temples including the Kirtland Temple, the Nauvoo Temple, and the temple sites of Adam-ondi-Ahman and Far West. Tom is the owner of Living Heritage tours and conducts several Church History Tours each year. His unique focus on this temple tour is not to just teach the history, but to help you draw closer to the Savior by applying the lessons learned from these historical events to your own daily life. Tom has become a student of the information taught on this and other LDS Church history tours. He has been teaching the gospel to youth and adults continuously for the last 16 years by serving as a youth Sunday School teacher, an Elders Quorum presidency councilor, Ward Young Men's Presidency councilor, Stake Young Men's Presidency councilor, Gospel Doctrine teacher, Mission Prep class teacher, and counselor in the Bishopric. He is the author of Adam-ondi-Ahman: Sacred History. Promised Future. and is a frequent guest speaker at Learn Our Religion and Visual Church History Tours. Tom served his mission in Australia. He and his wife Lesa have five children and live in Lehi, UT.
