

POLICY LEARNING WITH CANDIDATES

CINCINNATI CITY COUNCIL

Thursday Oct 12, 2017

5:30 pm – 8:30pm (doors open at 5)
Niehoff Urban Design Studio,
2728 Vine Street, Clifton Heights

Topics:

Race, Equity, Inclusion
Environment, Sustainability
Housing, Economic Development.

SPONSORS:

Greater Cincinnati Regional Food Policy Council, Rookwood Civic Collaboration

FORMAT

Format: Interactive Discussions around specific policy scenarios with candidates, topic experts and citizens. Each group will include 5 candidates, several topic experts and citizens discussing how they would resolve a policy question.

Note: Locations are wheelchair accessible. Please notify us of other hearing or disability accommodations needed.

PURPOSE

This forum will engage candidates and citizens to

- ❖ Learn about key policy issues
- ❖ Learn how their candidates make policy decisions.

CINCINNATI ELECTION 2017

This event is one of a series of candidate panels, forums and panels designed to engage and inform Cincinnati residents.

SPONSORS

Applied Information Resources

Cincinnati Association
Greater Cincinnati Urban League

Greater Cincinnati Regional Food Policy Council League of Women Voters of the Cincinnati Area

Urban Appalachian Community Coalition

Woman's City Club of Greater Cincinnati

ROOKWOOD CIVIC COLLABORATION

is a group of nonpartisan citizen groups working together.

FOR MORE INFO:

 www.lwvcincinnati.org

 tba

 rookwoodcivic@gmail.com