Hand To God-Touch Worship
At Philadelphia Theatre Co.

Touch experience/workshop for ASB WHY SETTLE FOR 'FINE' WHEN YOU COULD HAVE EVERYTHING? The good children of Cypress, Texas are taught to obey the Bible in order to evade Satan's hand, but all hell breaks loose when Jason's puppet at the Christian Puppet Ministry presents a shockingly sinister agenda of its own. In this hilarious and lightning-paced comedy, a foul-mouthed sock puppet named Tyrone soon teaches those around him that a person's darkest urges and desires fit like a glove, and Jason must re-define himself before the ventriloquist becomes the dummy. This irreverent Tony Award-nominated Broadway comedy hit inspires chills and chuckles as it unravels the fragility of faith.

American Canvas – Touch Workshop

At Philadelphia Theatre Co.

480 S Broad St,

Philadelphia, PA 19146

AMERICAN CANVAS tells the fascinating story of Philadelphia painter Thomas Eakins through his personal relationships and in the subjects he so carefully studied and rendered – all taking place in a country fresh from war, on the cusp of a new age of industry, and in the middle of a shift in social attitudes. To quote playwright Cain, "Thomas Eakins – 19th century Philadelphia artist – made a painting that he had to sell for less than the cost of the materials. In 2008, Philadelphia spent $68,000,000 for the Gross Clinic – the painting Tom couldn't give away. In his day, this visionary painter, photographer and teacher was called a provocateur, sexual outlaw and a very dangerous man. Eakins said of his life that it's all in the paintings. His art – a mix of 19th century restraint and total naked abandon without precedent that is, even now, shocking – changed American art forever."
