Join the newly formed FICE/ACEC-FL Energy Committee

The purpose of the committee is to develop industry-wide consensus and leadership positions on issues important to engineering firms operating in energy; undertake a proactive legislative and regulatory advocacy program; and communicate with the FICE/ACEC-FL membership on energy issues that affect their businesses. This committee is backed by the National ACEC Environment & Energy Committee who will support our Great State of Florida in local and statewide energy initiatives and legislation.

Join today by contacting shobbs@fleng.org
to have a seat at the table with top leaders in the energy industry
