REMOTA HOTEL – PATAGONIA

Remota is a world class refuge in the vast Patagonia, where our guests are received and welcomed like invitees to our grand house, attended with dedication, delicacy, and cautioning your interests. We count with a building with over 7000 square meters that has 72 rooms, each of 33 square meters, and extensive areas dedicated to a leisure experience for reading and contemplating. Temperate pool, sauna, Jacuzzis, souvenir shop, bar, salons, and of course an astonishing restaurant that offers the best food, prepared by our chef.

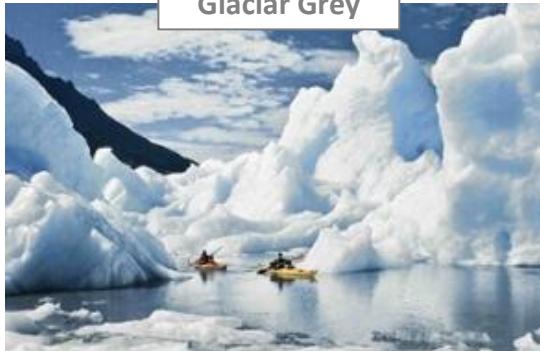

This work, has been designed with the purpose that our guests live and feel the Patagonia, also from inside of the building, the architect Germán del Sol – National Prize of Architecture – Proposes a creating that doesn't compete with its surrounding, where nature is always a special scenario. A warm, ecologic refuge connected with the exterior, inspired on the historical Patagonian sheep sheering sheds slanted by the wind.
