

JACQUELYN MAYFIELD is founder and president of MAYFIELD CONSULTING, LTD.

Ms. Mayfield brings a diverse range of experiences in business, government, health care and legal settings to her work as a career and leadership consultant to the legal, private wealth management, entrepreneurial start up and non profit sectors.

Over the past 20 years, in the legal profession, she designed and implemented a series of uniquely effective approaches to attorney recruitment, development, outplacement and coaching. Her consultations with law firms enhanced the quality of attorney performance and positively impacted the outplacement process. Her successful career transition and coaching models are structured, strategic and compassionate.

Ms. Mayfield presently consults with senior leaders in the design and execution of programs that empower and enhance leadership in the non-profit and for profit sectors. She currently consults with Evercore Wealth Management; Roar Africa LLC; Omega Institute and CEO's of entrepreneurial start up ventures led by women, among other ventures. Her business experience includes providing executive leadership consultant services with KRW International, a premier executive leadership development organization and with GenSpring Family Offices.

Before founding Mayfield Consulting Ltd, she held varied positions in the international marketing division of Mobil Oil Corporation, where she worked with senior management in developing and implementing worldwide marketing communications strategies. Prior to her employment at Mobil, Ms. Mayfield held positions in the U. S. House of Representatives, The White House, Time Magazine and as a clinical therapist in the internationally acclaimed Victims of Violence Program at Cambridge City Hospital, a Harvard Medical School teaching facility.

Ms. Mayfield holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in History and Psychology from the University of Alabama, and a Masters Degree in Clinical Social Work from Simmons College. She is a former member of the Board of Directors of the Girls Club of New York, and The Financial Women's Association of New York.

She is a current board member of the International Center for Research on Women, Roar Africa LLC; Chair of the Advisory Board of the Alliance for Artisan Enterprise of Aspen Institute; Jordan River Foundation, founded by Her Majesty Queen Rania and serves on the Stewardship Council of the Omega Institute. She is an advisor to the Omega Women's Leadership Center; Juan Fe Foundation in Colombia and Vienna based Women Without Borders. She is an active and involved supporter of global non-profit organizations supporting women and girls. She resides in New York City and Marblehead, MA.