

Multi-Religious Conflict Transformation Training

Turn negative conflict experiences into positive-at home, at work, in your religious community, in your town or city. Learn practical skills drawing from the depths of our religious traditions.

Monday and Wednesday Evenings from 7pm - 9pm

Part 1: October 31st, November 2nd, November 7th, and November 9th

Part 2: December 5th, December 7th, December 12th, and December 14th

Who is it for?

Religious leaders (lay and clergy) concerned about conflict.

People open to interacting and working with people of other religions.

People willing to explore and share from their own religious tradition about conflict transformation and peace.
