

As Part of Martin Luther King Jr. Day TKA Social Action Committee will host

Anti-Semitism, Islamophobia and Martin Luther King
With Professor Howard Lupovitch

Sunday, January 15, 2017

10:00am to 12:00pm

Light Refreshments / Donations are Welcome

Professor Howard Lupovitch is a member of the History Department and the Director of the Cohn-Haddow Center for Judaic Studies at Wayne State University. He is a fourth-generation Detroiters and a graduate of Hillel Day School, the University of Michigan, and Columbia University, where he received a PhD in Jewish History.