

Life's a conversation

Title: Supported Conversation for Adults with Aphasia (SCA™) for SLP Students

Format: Lecture (90 minutes)

- Lecture
- Video demonstration of skill
- Experiential learning through role plays

Learning Objectives

- Students will develop an understanding of communicative access and be familiar with the Aphasia: Framework for Outcome Measurement (A:FROM)
- Students will learn the basics of Supported Conversation for Adults with Aphasia (SCA™)
- Students will learn how to use aphasia-friendly resources using SCA™ techniques

Aphasia Institute will provide:

- An instructor with specific experience in student training
- All webinar materials:
 - PowerPoint handouts
 - 1 Talking To Your SLP hard copy resource/student
- Shipping resource to University prior to webinar
- Online registration support
- Post webinar online survey (and will share results)

Host Site will provide:

- Minimum 30 students
- Tech support (to be discussed further)
- A primary academic contact or delegate who will be present during the webinar to assist AI instructor

Cost

$50/student