

Action Alert

It's a New Congress. Help to Grow the Congressional Caucus on Hellenic Issues.

BACKGROUND

First created in 1995, the Congressional Caucus on Hellenic Issues is a bipartisan group of concerned Members of Congress working to foster and improve relations between the United States and our important allies, Greece and Cyprus. The Caucus brings congressional attention to key diplomatic, military, and human rights issues in a critical part of the world. The Hellenic Caucus also provides frequent updates from foreign ministry officials on the state of Cypriot reunification negotiations, as well as a focus on religious freedom issues of the Ecumenical Patriarch.

Formed in 1995, the purpose of the Congressional Caucus on Hellenic Issues, a bipartisan group of members of Congress, is to encourage and improve the United States' relationship with Greece while focusing on diplomatic, cultural, military, and human rights issues in the region. Members of the Caucus promote legislation and distribute information to those interested about U.S. policy toward the eastern Mediterranean. For example, the Caucus has been responsible for sponsoring legislation related to the reunification of Cyprus, the name-recognition issue for the former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia, and the reopening of the Orthodox Theological School of Halki in Turkey, among others. Without the Hellenic Caucus, AHEPA and the American Hellenic community would not have been able to attain a great policy achievement, Greece's entry into the United States' Visa Waiver Program (VWP) in 2010.

Last Congress, 137 Members joined the Caucus and participated in various Hellenic Caucus events, including member meetings with heads of state, and educational briefings on Greek and Cypriot economic and energy sectors. In the 111th Congress, a record 163 members were in the Hellenic Caucus. We must work to grow the caucus's membership back to this record number for the 115th Congress.

STATUS

At the start of the new 115th Congress, there are 120 members of the House of Representatives who are members of the Hellenic Caucus.

Note: The Caucus does not include U.S. senators as members. Just U.S. representatives.

ACTION

Did you see your member of Congress listed above? If not, please encourage your representative to join the Hellenic Caucus.

If your representative is already a member, please contact them to thank them for their support.

How Do I Contact My Member of Congress?

VIA Internet/E-mail/Letter/FAX

- Visit <http://www.house.gov/writerep/> to obtain the contact information for your U.S. Representative.

VIA Telephone

- In addition to writing your elected representative, you can also call him/her. You can contact your U.S. Representative through the Capitol Switchboard at (202) 224-3121.

HELPFUL TIPS

- ✓ Identify yourself as a constituent.
- ✓ If calling, ask to speak with the Foreign Affairs Legislative Assistant or Legislative Director.
- ✓ Keep your message/request for the representative to join the Hellenic Caucus as brief and as focused as possible.
- ✓ For expediency, we recommend sending a fax or telephoning as opposed to correspondence that is mailed. However, mailing a letter is suitable.
- ✓ Remember, members of Congress work for you and they want to hear from you.
- ✓ Note: For the purposes of record keeping, please send a copy of your correspondence to: Executive Director Basil Mossaidis, basil@ahempa.org.
 - This will allow us to know who in Congress has been contacted for future follow-up.

Hon. _____
United States House of Representatives
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Representative _____:

I am writing as a constituent and on behalf of the American Hellenic Educational Progressive Association (Order of AHEPA), the leading association for the nation's millions of American citizens of Greek heritage and Philhellenes, to invite you to join the Congressional Caucus on Hellenic Issues.

First created in 1995, the Congressional Caucus on Hellenic Issues is a bipartisan group of concerned members of Congress working to foster and improve relations between the United States and our important allies, Greece and Cyprus. The Caucus brings congressional attention to key diplomatic, military, and human rights issues in a critical part of the world. Last Congress, 137 U.S. representatives joined the Caucus and participated in various Hellenic Caucus events, including member meetings with heads of state, and educational briefings on Greek and Cypriot economic and energy sectors. The Hellenic Caucus also provides frequent updates from foreign ministry officials on the state of Cypriot reunification negotiations, as well as a focus on religious freedom issues of the Ecumenical Patriarchate—the world's oldest Christian Church.

Your membership in the Congressional Caucus on Hellenic Issues will signal to the Greek American community your commitment to a strong and viable U.S. relationship with Greece and a firm interest in issues of concern to the Greek American community.

For more information on the Congressional Caucus on Hellenic Issues, please contact Co-Chairs Representatives Gus Bilirakis or Carolyn Maloney.

Thank you for your consideration of our request. We anticipate a favorable reply.

Respectfully submitted,
