

HSSC February 2018 ❤️You can't buy love, but you can adopt it!❤️

Jacques-Henry: Ruggedly handsome seeks outdoorsy type for trail hikes

I arrived at HSSC as a stray in Healdsburg last April and have been searching for my soulmate ever since. True to my German Shepherd heritage, I'm intelligent, loyal and strong. At 3 ½ y/o, I'm longing for a special someone who shares my need for lots of companionship and exercise. When not hiking local trails with HSSC volunteers, I can be spotted enjoying a game of fetch with my fave squeaky toy or winding down with a shoulder massage. As sensitive as I am athletic, I want to be spoiled as your only pet. Read my full profile here!

Cici: Full-bodied feline seeks health-conscious partner for Zen lifestyle

When it comes to relationships and body image, I like to keep things positive. As comfortable as I am in all my gorgeously abundant glory, my doc says I need to lose a few pounds to live my healthiest, happiest life. I'm in search of some who can help me lighten up and have fun - feather wands anyone? As a sensitive, almost 6 y/o, I prefer the quiet life and a light touch when it comes to affection. My ideal companion will share my love of lazy, sun-warmed, blissed out spaces. No kids? No cats? No problem! Do be a dear and read more.

Badger: The most interesting cat in the world

Is it my debonair tuxedo? My rakish white whiskers? Or is it my tough-guy ear that adds so much intrigue? I don't always go around talking myself up, but when I do it's usually true. Admirers say that I'm "extremely good-looking" and have "a sweet and suave personality". As a 4 y/o former stray, I like to maintain an enigmatic air... affection on my own terms, and please tell me you only have eyes for me (I don't want to share you with little kids or other cats!). As an FIV+ kitty, I'll need to be kept indoors - I'm healthy and want to stay that way. But enough about me, how do you feel about me? Read all my fascinating details!

Socks and Spot: Must love shy guys

Do the quiet ones always melt your heart? Then buckle up, buttercup! As sensitive introverts we want you to make the first move. Let's take it slow, who among us doesn't have trust issues? But once we know you, we don't skimp on the affection - hope you like head-butts and nose kisses! At 8 ½ and 9 ½ years old, we're dreaming of a loving, supportive family of our own. Meet us for a casual first date at the Healdsburg shelter. Dogs and other cats need not apply.

Travis and Molly: Together Forever

As active seniors, we believe that the couple who plays together stays together. Our daily dose of fun might include tag-teaming in a Frisbee toss or strutting our stuff on local trails. Our friends here at HSSC are impressed by my polished manners and wowed by Molly's wiggle dance. Sweethearts since we were pups, we have a sweet 'n solid 8 years together. And now, we're hoping to share the love light with your adoring cat-free family. Are you the one we've been waiting for?

Thanks to your compassion, these animals have a safe haven at the Humane Society of Sonoma County no matter how long it takes! Show your love making a donation and helping us spread the word today!
