

Amanda Stallings

Amanda was born and raised here in Fort Worth. Graduated from Southwest High School and then attended Texas Christian University where she graduated with a degree in Criminal Justice and a Master of Liberal Arts degree. Her professional career began with working at Tarrant County Juvenile Services in the detention facility. Followed by Tarrant County Community Supervision and Corrections Department (CSCD) as a Probation Officer where she worked for 4 years. She and her husband, Tom, moved to Washington, DC where Tom worked in the United States Congress and Amanda worked as Probation and Parole Officer for the Department of Corrections in the Commonwealth of Virginia. Amanda began working at Gill Children's Services as the Executive Director on September 1, 2004. Ten years later in 2014, Amanda accepted her current role as Executive Director of the JPS Foundation. Amanda and Tom have three daughters 8 ½, 10, and 11.

Amanda currently serves as Chair of the AddRan Board of Visitors at TCU, Immediate Past-Chair/Chapter President of the Fort Worth Alumni at TCU, board member of the National Alumni Board at TCU, Advisory Board member for Save a Smile, board member of the Greatest Gift Catalog Ever, board member for the Hispanic Chamber of Commerce Foundation, a member of the Downtown Rotary, a member of Association of Fundraising Professionals, a member of Partnership for Philanthropic Planning, a member of Association of Healthcare Philanthropy, a member of the Tanglewood Elementary School PTA, member of the McLean 6th PTA, and a member of the University Christian Church Endowment Committee.