THE ENERGY WATER NEXUS

James H. Caldwell Jr.

Jim Caldwell has been in the energy field for over fifty years with a broad range of experience in virtually all forms of renewable energy.

He has worked for large and small corporations, utilities, trade associations, and governmental agencies. He is the Project Manager for the Low Carbon Grid 2030 Study an analytical effort sponsored by over 30 entities looking to examine the economic and operational concerns with significant expansion of California's investment in renewable energy to reduce greenhouse gas emissions from the electric sector.
