Youth Camp Rules

1. Campers are not permitted to leave the grounds without permission from the Camp Director or his designated representative.
2. No campers are allowed inside of or sitting on vehicles.
3. Concerning the conduct of couples of the opposite gender: Public displays of affection such as kissing, hugging, holding hands, or any other action not conducive to good, Christian conduct will not be allowed. Couples are to remain in approved areas of the campus designated by the camp staff at all times.
4. All campers must attend and be prompt at all meals and meetings unless excused by the Camp Director or his designated representative.
5. All registered campers are required to wear their name badges at all times excluding times of recreation.
6. Campers are not to enter another's living quarters except by permission of the Camp Director or a worker of that living quarter. Boys are not permitted to enter the area of the girl's living quarters, nor vice-versa.
7. Being that youth camp is a place where we come to focus on our relationship with God and with other Apostolic young people, no camper or worker shall have in their possession at any time: knives, guns, weapons, fireworks, drugs, tobacco products, alcoholic beverages, televisions, and any kind of electronic games or media, etc.
8. Vile, rude or profane language is prohibited.
9. All should give respect to the camp grounds, buildings, and facilities. Anyone defacing or destroying property must pay the damage incurred.
10. Campers are permitted online in designated areas.
11. Every camper, worker and staff member must be responsible for his or her own bedding, bed, clothing, luggage, and personal belongings.
12. Athletic equipment and facilities are under the control of the Recreation Director and may be used as specified by him.
13. Campers and workers are required to stay in their living quarters each night, from the time of "lights out" until time to rise, except for emergency. No change or switching of bed assignment is allowed without previous consent of the Camp Director or designated authority.
14. It is required that everyone dress modestly and groom themselves neatly at all times, with no makeup or non-functional jewelry. No clothing with vulgar, distasteful or suggestive logos, pictures, or slogans is permitted. No clothing that is revealing or form-fitting can be worn on the campground at any time.
  - a. Girls: Dresses or a skirt and blouse must be worn, with dress or skirt length below the knee; no sleeveless clothing, cap sleeves; no low necklines; no thin or see through clothing, including T-shirt type material; no dresses or skirts with slits that go above the knee. Shoes must be worn outside of the dormitories.

- b. Boys: No facial hair; sideburns no longer than the middle of the ear; a neat and masculine haircut as follows—no hair covering any part of the ears, hair not to hang over the top of the collar. No shorts allowed. Regular slacks or jeans must be worn; wind pants and/or sweats will be only permitted during recreation. Shoes must be worn outside of the dormitories.
15. Those who fail to sign all requested forms will be sent home.
16. In the event of an unspecified situation not addressed by these rules, it shall be the responsibility of the Camp Executive Committee to make a discreet decision concerning the matter.
17. Any areas of disciplinary action that occurs or deemed necessary will be referred to the Youth Camp Executive member designated to be in charge [District Superintendent, District Secretary, Youth/Sunday School Department President, Youth/Sunday School Secretary, or Youth/Sunday School Department Promotions Director]. The camp reserves the right to reject or dismiss any applicant [camper or worker] not complying with the camp rules or who is deemed to have questionable character.
18. Only registered campers will be allowed on campus during daytime camp activities. Evening services are open to everyone.
19. NO CAMPERS ARE PERMITTED TO BRING ANY HANDHELD ELECTRONICS; this includes all cell phones, iPods/mp3 players, DVD/CD players, computers, games, etc. Any campers (teen or senior) who bring the above items to camp will be required to turn them into the camp office. They will receive them back on Saturday morning before departure. NO EXCEPTIONS. There will be telephones provided for campers to use in case of emergencies only. Parents will also receive contact phone numbers in case of emergency. NOTE: campers bear SOLE responsibility for any lost or stolen electronics. For this reason we ask that you leave them at home. We will not be responsible for them. (Cameras are permitted; cell phone cameras are not)
