Drs Craig Dunn, Ann Essman, Kelly Vaughan and Sherry Smalley welcome the arrival of Dr. Jennifer Zarbaugh to Fairfield Pet Hospital on February 13, 2017!

Dr. Jennifer Zarbaugh grew up in Powell Ohio. She attended the University of Findlay for her undergraduate studies where she graduated in 2004 before attending The Ohio State University College of Veterinary Medicine to pursue her dream of becoming a veterinarian. In 2009 she graduated from The Ohio State College of Veterinary Medicine and began practicing small animal medicine in the Canal Winchester community for 7 1/2 years before joining the Fairfield Pet Hospital in February 2017. Dr. Zarbaugh's clinical interests include ophthalmology and internal medicine. She is an active member of the American Veterinary Medical Association, the Ohio Veterinary Medical Association and the American Animal Hospital Association.

Dr. Zarbaugh lives with her husband Joe, a firefighter for the City of Columbus, and their two children Jaxon (3.5) and Julianne (1.5). They have two dogs (Loki and Maya) and two cats (Madge and Tita). They enjoy spending their free time outdoors and with family.
