

High School
Art Student
Portfolio
Development

FREE SUMMER ART PROGRAM

LIMITED TO 20 STUDENTS

An intensive summer learning program that provides current high school art students with an opportunity to create a portfolio of new art works, and to refine and organize their personal portfolios in preparation for entry to college or university art programs.

Dates: June 29th through July 27th

Time: 9am - 1pm Tuesdays, Wednesdays & Thursdays

Location: Goodyear Community Room
(420 E. Loma Linda Blvd. Goodyear, AZ 85338)

For registration:

http://apm.activecommunities.com/cityofgoodyear/Activity\_Search/7678

or go to the Goodyear Parks and Rec office and sign up there.

Instructor: Gayle Glenn :

Gayle Glenn has a master's degree in Art Education, National Board Certification and is certified to teach High School Advanced Placement Art. She taught a successful AP Art Program at Detroit School for the Arts and continues to practice her own art now that she is living in Goodyear, Arizona.

Catitude Gallery
and studio
A Community Arts Center

