

Deutscher Akademischer Austauschdienst
German Academic Exchange Service

News from Canada

February 1, 2017

Webinar: Pursuing A Degree in Germany - What Do Students in Canada Need to Know?

DAAD is pleased to be partnering with Uni-assist, Germany's university application service for international students, to present the webinar "Pursuing a Degree in Germany - What Do Students in Canada Need to Know?" on Monday, February 13th from noon to 1 pm EST.

This webinar is geared towards providing information to students at Canadian high schools, colleges, CÉGEPs or universities who are considering continuing their studies at a German university. The webinar will provide general information on entrance requirements for Bachelor, Master's and Doctoral studies in Germany along with details on application procedures including the assessment of Canadian credentials and transcripts.

To register

If you're interested in taking part in this event, we would ask that you please fill out the registration form found here.

In This Issue:

Deadline: Leibniz-DAAD Research Fellowship, March 9, 2017

DAAD's Germany Today 2017 - Application Deadline: March 17th

DAAD IC Toronto - Sprechstunden at Goethe-Institut Toronto in February

DAAD at Study and Go Abroad Fairs in Montréal \(March 4th\) and Toronto \(March 5th\)

Deadline: Postdoctoral Research International Mobility Experience \(P.R.I.M.E.\), May 15, 2017

Research in Germany
Land of Ideas

Visit: daad-canada.ca
Email: daadca@daad.org

Leibniz-DAAD Postdoc Research Fellowships: Deadline March 9, 2017

The 2017 deadline for applications to the Leibniz-DAAD Research Fellowship will be March 9th.

This program offers recent postdocs (thesis defence no earlier than Jan. 1, 2015) the opportunity to apply for a research fellowship to support a 12-month research stay at one of the 91 independent research institutions that make up the Leibniz Association.

In order to be eligible to apply, applicants must not hold German citizenship, have an outstanding research record, hold a PhD or equivalent and an excellent working knowledge of English.

This fellowship provides recipients with a monthly stipend of 2,000 euros, full insurance coverage and a German language course.

To apply

For more details, including information on how to apply, please click here.

Germany Today Application Deadline: March 17th

DAAD North America is once again inviting senior administrators from universities, research institutions and funding agencies to apply to take part in this year's Germany Today information tour.

This year's tour will take place from June 18-24, 2017 under the heading Promoting Research and Cooperation in the University Scene: Germany's Excellence Strategy and Cluster Policy. This year's itinerary includes stops at institutions in Bonn, Cologne, Bochum, Dortmund and Hamburg where participants will be introduced to the underlying concept behind these funding initiatives, consider the results to date along with the challenges and pitfalls which accompany this approach.

DAAD is able to cover participants' program-related costs while in Germany (accommodation, domestic travel and most meals). Applications to participate will be accepted until March 17, 2017.

For more details on this year's program, including information how to apply, please visit:

<https://www.daad.org/en/find-funding/faculty/germany-today/>

DAAD IC Toronto at Goethe-Institut Toronto February 7th and 22nd

Germany is an increasingly popular destination for international students looking to continue their studies. If you or someone you know is considering Germany for their university education and you live in the Greater Toronto Area, drop by Goethe-Institut Toronto (100 University Avenue, #205) between 5:30 to 6:00 pm on both Tuesday, February 7th and Wednesday, February 22nd. There you'll find a representative of the DAAD Information Centre Toronto who will be able to answer your questions about all aspects of pursuing degree studies in Germany including: how to identify study programs of interest, information on the necessary qualifications to be considered for entry and how to apply.

Hope to see you there!

DAAD at Study and Go Abroad Fairs in Montréal and Toronto

The DAAD Information Centre Toronto will be on hand at the upcoming Study and Go Abroad Fairs in Montréal (Saturday, March 4th) and Toronto (Sunday, March 5th).

We'll be there to provide information on pursuing degree studies in Germany and on DAAD's suite of scholarship and grant programs supporting study and research in Germany.

Admission is free, so plan to drop by!

For more information on the fairs, including details on location, hours and how to pre-register, visit <http://www.studyandgoabroad.com/student-expo/>

Postdoctoral Researchers International Mobility Experience (P.R.I.M.E.)

The DAAD's "Postdoctoral Researchers International Mobility Experience" (P.R.I.M.E.) supports the international mobility of postdoctoral researchers by temporary positions at German universities in place of conventional scholarships.

Postdoctoral researchers of all nationalities, who see their long-term career perspectives in Germany, will be given the opportunity to combine employment at a German university with a research stay abroad.

The P.R.I.M.E. program, funded by the German Federal Ministry of Education and Research and the European Union (EU/FP7/Marie Curie Actions/COFUND), provides participants with an 18-month work contract with a German university; the first 12 months are spent at a university or research institution outside of Germany with the final 6 months (re-integration phase) carried out at a German university.

Deadline and How To Apply

The deadline for applications is May 15, 2017 with adjudication of applications taking place in October 2017. The earliest starting date for funding is January 1, 2018.

For more details, including information on how to apply, please click here.

Advertising: Ulm University

Master Online Advanced Oncology
Study part-time - team up internationally!

Study Program for Online Master's in Advanced Oncology - Study part time - team up internationally - Online Application is now open at www.masteroncology.de

Due to the rapid speed of new developments in oncology, oncologists and associated scientists experience a growing need to update their education in the basics, the standards and upcoming demands of patient treatment and management. Ulm University has established unique study program addressing these needs. The main objective of this Online Master's Program is to improve the quality of patient treatment and care through the development of professional competencies and excellence.

Advertising: ESB Business School

Hochschule Reutlingen
Reutlingen University

Study at the heart of Europe, in Germany - the economic leader of the world's largest domestic economy - and find a truly international business school: ESB Business School in Reutlingen. We're located in Baden-Württemberg - a prosperous region that is home to many global companies - from highly-specialised medical technology companies to some of the world's foremost automotive manufacturers. Our students have access to a network of renowned partner companies, giving our degree programmes real practical relevance. More than 100 partner universities all over the world, students from 85 nations on the ESB campus and international double degree programmes ensure the worldwide employability of our graduates. ESB Business School is part of state-funded Reutlingen University and offers a range of top-ranked undergraduate, graduate and executive programmes in business and operations management in German and/or English.

<http://www.esb-business-school.de/en/degree-programmes>

www.daad-canada.ca - daadca@daad.org

Copyright 2016 German Exchange Service. All Rights Reserved.

Sign up for our newsletter

