During her career in radio and television, she wrote and produced shows and was the recipient of three Writers Guild of America awards.

CAMERA pioneered the monitoring of media coverage which misrepresents Israel. Its 65,000 letter writers work with CAMERA analysts to correct flawed coverage in North America, Israel, Spain, the UK and Latin America. CAMERA's Arabic Project tracks Arabic platforms of influential media outlets such as CNN, AP, BBC, Huffington Post, Reuters and others, providing accurate accounts of Israel to thousands of Arabic speaking news consumers. The CAMERA on Campus Project provides extensive training, financial assistance and support to Israel advocates on 80 college campuses in the US, Great Britain and Canada. The Partnership of Christian and Jews program is a powerful voice to counter anti-Israel campaigns in the Christian media and within the Christian community. CAMERA recently released an extensive study on anti-Israel bias in the Newton, MA public school curricula, calling national attention to inaccurate information about Israel now being taught to junior and high school students.
