

Havurat Torah Tracks

Teens in Havurat Torah choose to participate in a track that suits their interests and needs. New this year, is a Hebrew Track, in addition to Straight Up and Just Tracks!

Straight Up 6:30-8:45pm

This track provides the most choice.

6:30-6:55pm Dinner
7:00-7:55pm 7th grade: Grade-wide Core Seminar
8th-12th grades: Va'adah/Seminar
8:00-8:45pm Elective

Just Tracks! 6:30-8:00pm

This track provides a shorter weekday schedule and social justice projects one Sunday/month.

6:30-6:55pm Dinner
7:00-7:55pm 7th grade: Grade-wide Core Seminar
8th-12th grades: Va'adah/Seminar
8:00pm Dismissal

One Sunday/month: Social Action Sundays community service projects. Some Sundays are spent volunteering at TIC and some are off-site at our partner organizations in Westchester or the larger New York metro area.

New This Year!!

Hebrew Track 6:30-8:45pm

This track provides an opportunity to read and discuss primarily in Hebrew.

6:30-6:55pm Dinner
7:00-7:55pm 8th-12th grades: Hebrew Language and Literature Seminar
8:00-8:45pm Elective: Bet Midrash
Additional options may be added to serve the number of teens enrolled.

The weekly Havurat Torah Wednesday evening schedule will be as follows:

6:30-6:55pm Dinner

7:00-7:55pm 7th Graders: Grade-wide Core Seminar
7:00-7:55pm Grades 8-12: Va'adot/Seminars

8:00pm Evening concludes for those in Just Tracks!

8:00-8:45pm Electives for all teens in Straight Up and Hebrew Intensive tracks

Each month, there will also be opportunities when all of the teens across TIC will be invited to join with the Havurat Torah participants for community events and experiences with special guests.

In Havurat Torah, the learning is fun and meaningful. Join us as we learn together and examine some of the big questions of contemporary life. If you are a teen and would like to see how participating in Havurat Torah can satisfy your curiosity and help you connect with other teens at the same time as you explore your personal passions, please register today.

