

TEMPLE ISRAEL CENTER PRESENTS

JUDITH SHULEVITZ

SCHOLAR-IN-RESIDENCE SHABBAT

MAY 12-13, 2017 / 17 IYYAR 5777

P'NEI SHABBAT: ASPECTS OF THE SABBATH WORLD

May 12: Kabbalat Shabbat at 5:50 PM, followed by dinner.* After dinner, Ms. Shulevitz will be speaking on the topic, “Can Our Ethics Keep Up with Our Pace?: The Moral Aspects of the Sabbath World.”

May 13: Shabbat services at 9:00 AM. Ms. Shulevitz will speak on “In Remembrance of Leaving Egypt: Shabbat and the Things that Hold Us Captive.”

Following Kiddush, the final session will be “Texts that Illuminate Shabbat: Study and Dialogue with Judith Shulevitz and Rabbi Tucker.”

Judith Shulevitz is an essayist and editor who has helped found or relaunch several magazines, including Lingua Franca, New York Magazine, and Slate. Currently a contributing opinion writer for The New York Times, she has served as editor of Lingua Franca, founding cultural editor and columnist at Slate, deputy editor and columnist for New York Magazine, columnist for The New York Times Book Review, and a senior writer and editor at The New Republic. Her essays have appeared in The Atlantic Monthly, The New Yorker, and other publications, and she has taught at New York University and Barnard College. She is the author of The Sabbath World: Glimpses of a Different Order of Time.

*$25/per adult for dinner; $15/per child (5-12 years)

The May 12 event is open to the public at 8:15 PM.

For dinner reservations and childcare registration, visit
www.templeisraelcenter.org/2017\_scholar

TEMPLE
ISRAEL
CENTER