

"Law & Orders" Fact Sheet

Special Olympics
New York

What: An annual fundraising event organized by The Law Enforcement Torch Run® for Special Olympics New York and Applebee's in which law enforcement officers volunteer their time as "celebrity waiters" at the local Applebee's restaurants and receive "tips" to raise funds for Special Olympics.

Officers will be there to help greet customers and explain why they are there. They will help the wait staff bus tables, get drinks, etc. On each table will be an envelope where the customer may choose to leave a donation "tip" for Special Olympics in addition to their server's normal tip.

When: Thursday, September 14, 2017
5:00pm-8:00pm (arrive at 4:45pm)
Beverages and appetizers will be served to volunteers at 8:00pm

Who: Law enforcement officers and Special Olympics athletes

Why: "Law and Orders" generate tremendous community goodwill and public awareness for Special Olympics and law enforcement. The "Law and Orders" program raises funds for the Law Enforcement Torch Run to benefit Special Olympics New York. "Law and Orders" allows Torch Run volunteers to involve their families and colleagues inside and outside the Torch Run community in a fund-raiser for Special Olympics.

Dress Code: Members of law enforcement are encouraged to wear their uniform if permitted. We will provide a Law & Orders t-shirt for both law enforcement and athletes participating, VOLUNTEER FORM REQUIRED. Please wear chinos (athletes any wear athletic wear and one medal) and comfortable shoes. No denim please.
